ADM Families,

Can you believe that Thanksgiving will already be here in just a few weeks? I look forward to this time of year, special traditions, and time with family. I hope that you have a great time with family and friends as you celebrate this holiday. Please read below to view a few updates and reminders.

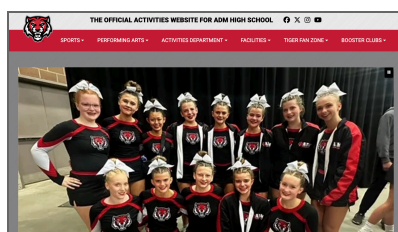

Focus on Learning School Board Reports

Each month the ADM School Board receives a “Focus on Learning” report at the monthly School Board meeting. At the November Board Meeting, ADM’s Career and Technical Education (CTE) teachers provided an update about ADM’s Agriculture, Family and Consumer Science, Business, Industrial Technology, and Work Based Learning programs. Use the following links to review the slide deck for more information: 9-12 CTE Focus on Learning

ADM TouchPro Digital Archive

Families are reminded to check out ADM’s TouchPro Digital Archives, a digital collection of past high school yearbooks, academic award recipients, athletic and fine arts wall of fame recipients, alumni hall of fame recipients, digitized, class composites, and more! The Digital Archives can be accessed online at admschools.touchpros.com or in person at the interactive touch screen display located in the middle school commons.

ADM Activities Website

Families are reminded to check out the ADM Activities website to access feature stories and photos about ADM activities, event scoreboards, ticket information, the activities calendar, Fine Arts and Athletic Booster Club information, information about ADM facilities, activity department information for families and students, and more! Take a look: www.admactivities.org

Student Assistance Program

ADM partners with Employee and Family Resources (EFR) to provide a formal Student Assistance Program (SAP) for all students and their family members. ADM’s Student Assistance Program is confidential, free, and available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. Learn More: ADM Student Assistance Program

Have a great day!
