

Second Grade 10 Things

The top ten priority standards in the areas of reading, writing, and math.

Reading 10 Things

1. Read at a Lexile 645 and 90 correct words per minute
2. Retell with setting, plot, sequence of events, and character point of view/perspective
3. Identify the main idea and key details
4. Respond to questions such as 5 W's
5. Develop vocabulary with homophones, synonyms, antonyms, and multiple meaning words
6. Use context clues to determine the meaning of unknown words
7. Imagery, text to visual connections
8. Identify cause and effect relationships
9. High frequency words with automaticity in isolation and context

Writing 10 Things

1. Produce and complete sentences including 7-8 words with a subject and a predicate
2. Produce multiple sentences on a topic for narrative, opinion, and informative writing
3. Use graphic organizer to create a paragraph
4. Use sequential and transition words as appropriate
5. Use CUPS to revise writing
6. Introduction to keyboarding skills to type sentences.

Math 10 Things

1. Addition and subtraction up to 999 with regrouping (0)
2. Place value up to 1,000- read and write numbers with expanded form and number names
3. Multi-step word problems (comparison)
4. Area and arrays up to 12 x 12 in multiplication, number, and word form
5. Know multiplication is repeated addition, division is repeated subtraction, addition and subtraction are opposites.
6. Measure inches, feet, yards, millimeter, centimeter, meter, and estimation
7. Create and read graphs to make comparisons and answer questions
8. Analog and digital time to nearest five minutes, am and pm.
9. Money and coin combination and counting dollars and coins together.
10. Fractions: part of a whole, denominator is the numbers of items, numerator is the number of items used ($\frac{1}{2}$, $\frac{1}{3}$, $\frac{1}{4}$, $\frac{2}{3}$, $\frac{3}{4}$)
11. 2D and 3D shapes, classify by vertices, compare shapes, sides, faces, etc.