

Third Grade 10 Things

The top ten priority standards in the areas of reading, writing, and math.

Reading 10 Things

1. Literary story elements & character traits
2. Author's message (theme, recount stories)
3. Information text features: graphs, pictures, maps
4. Informational sequencing (historical events, timeline of events, cause & effect)
5. Determine main & idea
6. Compare & contrast 2 sources/ text
7. Reading strategies- context clues, inferencing
8. Decoding skills
9. Reading stamina
10. Ask and answer questions

Writing 10 Things

1. Independently write paragraphs (informational, opinion, narrative)
2. Informational and opinion: topic sentence, three details with multiple reasons/ examples, and conclusion.
3. Narrative: beginning, middle, end, should contain problem/ solution, sequencing of events, character development
4. Cite evidence (sorting evidence based on category and source)
5. Write daily
6. keyboarding/ typing skills
7. Research projects

Math 10 Things

1. Multiplication and division: fluency to 144
2. Multiplication and division: strategies and properties
3. Place value (millions) and rounding to the nearest thousands
4. Area of more than one rectangle or square combined
5. Perimeter of any polygon
6. Attributes of polygons with quadrilateral focus
7. Word problems (multi-step)
8. Graphing data: bar graphs, pictographs, and line plots
9. Fractions: on a number line, ordering, comparing, equivalent fractions, and whole numbers as a fraction
10. Measuring to the nearest  $\frac{1}{4}$  of an inch
11. Elapsed time

Third Grade 10 Things