1. What is the overall district mission?

    Andes Central School is a small rural school district with a safe environment and a strong sense of community. The mission of the Andes school community, through a positive learning environment, is to produce self-sufficient citizens who are adaptable to changes in society and who possess the self-esteem, motivation and skills to continue individual growth and to ensure that all students meet or exceed high learning standards at the elementary, middle, and high school levels.

2. What is the vision statement that guides instructional technology use in the district?

    - Use technology to strengthen, extend, or make student learning experiences more meaningful, hands-on, and inquiry-based.
    - Utilize administrative technology to automate administrative functions allowing more school personnel and human resources to be directed towards improving student achievement.
    - Increase communications between the school and students' homes through the use of Internet resources.
    - Utilize instructional software to differentiate instruction, thus improving student achievement.
    - Use technology (i.e. School website, screencasts, message boards, etc.) to enhance and reinforce professional development topics.

3. Summarize the planning process used to develop answers to the Instructional Technology Plan questions and/or your district comprehensive Instructional Technology Plan. Please include the stakeholder groups participating and the outcomes of the instructional technology plan development meetings.

    The Andes Technology Committee met multiple times during the school year to plan for the future of technology for the district. This involved reviewing the previous ITP and seeing what did work and what needed to be improved upon still. Also discussed and made into high priority was the outdated classroom technology and need for a more modern network infrastructure in the district.

4. How does the district's Instructional Technology Plan build upon, continue the work of, and improve upon the previous three-year plan?

    The planning process for this ITP was different because of having a lot of feedback from various stakeholders that went outside the core committee, and also the acclerated timeline that we had for the plan due to administrative and technology staff turnover during the school year. Only some of the previous goals were met in the last ITP and then others were dropped altogether due to a lack of implementation and the costs involved to the district on a yearly basis. This plan will work on closing the gaps from the previous plan and move the district forward for the next three years and even longer.

5. How does the district Instructional Technology Plan reflect experiences during the COVID pandemic?

    Besides the partial closure of school in 2019-2020, Andes was able to re-open for the 2020-2021 school year and stay open every instructional day since then. Yes, there have been COVID cases in the building, but the district remains firm in the ability to provide classroom instruction to students and will continue to do so.

6. Is your district currently fully 1:1?

    Yes

7. Please describe the professional development plan for building the capacity of educators and administrators in the attainment of the instructional technology vision as stated in response to question 2.

    Educators and administrators will be provided with regular, CTLE approved, professional development opportunities to assist them in providing meaningful learning opportunities for students that will enhance student learning by increasing rigor, differentiating instruction, and increasing the effective use of instructional technologies. Professional development opportunities may include training and implementation of Google Workspace, Google LMS, and the NYS Next Generation Learning Standards. Opportunities and time will also be provided to focus on curriculum and planning.
