- The French National Honor Society is pleased to announce the return of the Student/Faculty Talent Show! The show will take place on Friday May 13 at 7 PM in Rowe Hall. Our charity this year is the BE LIKE BRIT Foundation – located on Grand Goave in Haiti. This foundation provides housing and education to Haitian youth as they look to rebuild their futures and work towards a brighter future! If you are interested in being a part of this humanitarian effort, then stop by Room 314 and ask Mrs. Anderson how you can get involved! We are looking for you to share your talents for a good cause! Any questions ask any member of the French Honor Society or ask Mrs. Anderson.
- Here we go now! It's the big day, the day we've all been waiting for! "Poem In Your Pocket Day" is upon us! The E.L.A. department wishes to thank the music department and the art department for their collaborative partnership in pulling out all of the stops. This year will be one for the books! Shout out to the Mrs. Stork's Multimedia Club for creating and pressing this year's presenter's buttons. Ninth grader Vanessa Espinosa did a fantastic job in designing this year's artwork. Big thanks to the members of the National English Honor Society in helping decorate the library and for placing poems in each and every student locker. Way to go!
Do you have a poem in your pocket? If not, get one! Help yourselves to poems in the blue folders located in all of the hallways.

Did you know there's a special promotion happening today? If a teacher asks you for a poem and you can share one from your pocket, then you will earn a raffle ticket. Return it to the library for a chance to win a gift basket of fun prizes- including a collectors' edition of John Green novels (Thanks Mr. Fasano!) a poet's notebook, a pizza blanket and more! The winner will be announced on this show the Monday we return from break.

Get your poems ready! See you in the library!
