

Daily Announcements

Thursday, June 9, 2022

- Anyone who hasn't signed up for the Boys Soccer Sports You Account, stop by Mr. McGovern's office today.
- For anyone interested in running boys or girls Cross Country in the Fall there will be a meeting today 6/9 in the cafeteria at 3pm. If you plan on running you must attend.
- There will be a Varsity & JV Girls Volleyball meeting on Monday 6/13 @ 3PM in the HS Cafeteria. Any girls entering grades 9-12 interested in playing next fall must attend.
- Senior Parent Game Night is tonight! It's not too late to participate in the Amazing Race! Meet tonight on Grove Place outside gym doors at 5:45. Race kicks off at 6:00PM sharp!
- If you were not able to attend the Principal's High Honors Awards ceremony, please pick up your certificate, pin, and program at the Attendance Office.
- Attention ALL Seniors: If you owe permission slips or money for the Prom, they MUST be handed in by FRIDAY, JUNE 10th. See Mrs. Fama or Mrs. Harrison if you have any questions.
- Good morning Babylon Panthers! As you clean out your lockers, please be on the lookout for your overdue library books. They can be returned via the book drop in the library's circulation desk. All library books are due back to the library by Friday, June 10th. And rumor has it, you will receive one free Flavor-Ice Freeze Pop for each returned library book! If you need books for summer reading, you can check out five (5) library books for an extended "summer loan," due back Friday, September 30th, 2022. Looking for reading recommendations? Visit Mrs. Biener in the library, or you can email her a request with your favorite genre. Return your books today!
- SUMMER READING! It's that time of year again! We've got summer on the brain, and we're looking forward to all of the wonderful summer reading ahead of us! So here's the deal - Everyone in grades 7-12 is free to choose 5 books of their own choosing. They can be novels, nonfiction, graphic novels, ebooks or audiobooks. As long as they are interesting to you, and age appropriate (Sorry, No Cat In The Hat) you're good to go! Here's the good news- There's no required reading journal, or report. Just come prepared in the Fall to booktalk the titles to your new E.L.A. teacher. For your efforts, you will receive a certificate, administration credit and admission to the Library's Book Bash! Contact Mrs. Biener if you have any questions. Happy Reading!
