

DAILY ANNOUNCEMENTS

Wednesday, November 3, 2021

- All high school girls interested in joining Varsity Girls Winter Track this season should attend a sign-up meeting tomorrow, 11/4, at 2:30pm in the cafeteria. Any questions please see Ms. Pascarella.
- Jazz Lab Band has rehearsal tonight in the Band Room starting at 6:30. See you then!
- There will be a HIGH SCHOOL ROBOTICS meeting on Tuesday 11/9. If you would like to join, plan on attending!
- All students participating in building and/or set crew for the fall production of "Clue" are called to rehearsals on Wednesday, Nov. 3 from 2:30-3:30, and Thursday, Nov. 4 from 2:30-4:30. Any questions? Please see a Drama Club officer or Ms. Olivieri.
- Attention Juniors & Seniors: Please sign up in the Counseling Center to meet with a representative from:
 - Mercy College Thursday 11/4 12:15pm (7th period)

Keep checking in the Counseling Center to sign up for other college rep visits this year.

SPORTS NEWS!!!

Congratulations to the JH Girls Soccer Team on their last win versus Brentwood North and for an undefeated season!!! Great job girls!!!

LONG ISLAND CHAMPS!!!

Congratulations to the Boys Varsity Soccer team who had an eventful long weekend. On Saturday the Panthers beat Mattituck in a long shoot-out victory prevailing 7-6 in sudden death shoot out. Freshman Owen Morris scored the winning shot and Troy Schipf made the game winning save to earn MVP of the County Final helping the Panthers win their second consecutive title.

Yesterday the Panthers traveled to Nassau to face Locust Valley in the Long Island Championship game. The Panthers won 4-0 to improve to 17-2 on the season and recorded their Long Island leading 15th shutout. Cole Conboy scored, Lucas Montalto added 2 goals and Luca Giammarino finished off the scoring. Carlos Berrios had 2 assists and the defense led by Kye Castelluccio held Locust Valley to 1 shot on goal.

The Panthers advance to the regional finals of the state tournament on Saturday at 3:00 at Diamond in the Pines. Come out and support the Boys in their historic run for a state title.