TJ was a kind gentle selfless man that loved his family above everything, they were his world and he was theirs and now their world is forever changed without him. A devoted loving father to his girls, wife, sister and his parents. TJ was an outstanding athlete, and excelled in everything he did, whether it was ice hockey, bowling, skiing, tennis, golf, coaching soccer, basketball and softball. He shared his passion of sports with his daughters and the girls he coached. His easy, comfortable manner allowed him to connect with each child and help them realize their potential. He watched them discover their abilities, help build confidence, instill positive ethics and most of all the love of the game.
