HYPOTHETICAL SITUATIONS

Please give a brief description of how you might handle the following hypothetical situations.

1. Imagine that you overhear children in your group talking about leaving their cabins during the night. How might you handle this situation?

2. You are on the trail with a group of 12 children. There is a NatureBridge staff member and one other adult. There is a child who is not staying with the group and wandering. How might you handle this situation?
