Minutes: Brief summary of meeting

Summary: The first meeting opened up with introductions from committee members who explained their background and purpose for joining the committee.

Introductions:

- Christina Guastella-Teachers report-creating a school of students who feel good about themselves
- Ms. Bagshaw states that she wants to help in any way that she can.
- Jeff Neubauer, interested in developing a system for the different problems and developing a system of behavior tracking and interventions.
- Susan Conklin-the same students are being targeted, we seem to address the behavior but it doesn't stop.
- Ryeasia Walker-wants to help with bullying and has been bullied before.
- Ms. Sebor focuses on student's inner insecurities and what they are going through that affects bullying and their well-being.
- Mr. Barker join committee to be advocate for students because he has seen bullying happen; he wants to help teach them respect and values that they need.
- Mr. Hauser is glad to be here and thanked everyone who is involved and he realized that the superintendent as a responsibility will establish the bullying prevention. He feels that administration not always understands what this means. Stated that the DASA form is an official form that has several levels. He wants to make sure he can do his part for the district.
- Ms. Ozsu wears many hats as Student Council, parent and PBIS, discussed the possibility of having a superintendent round table, her goal is prevention and be a part of positive school culture and building confidence to allow students to feel connected and
- Mr. Pluta is spearheading the Secondary School PBIS and feels that both committees should work together. He is a big supporter of helping students the way he was helped others when he was a kid. He hopes to establish a school wide philosophy on bully prevention.

It is the mission of the Bridgehampton School to inspire lifelong intellectual curiosity and respectful individual expression by reaching beyond our school community and teaching all students the essential skills to actively participate in the global community and to flourish in the 21st Century.
