BHS CLASS OF 2020 Commencement

Graduation this year looked and felt different than in years past. There were no large gatherings of students, teachers and families coming together to celebrate the Class of 2020. Though bittersweet, the district found a way to honor each senior in a personal way they will always remember.

Over the course of three days in June, students were invited to the high school to individually walk the stage and receive their diplomas in front of their loved ones. Families were able to cheer on their senior as they marked a significant rite of passage. Students were filmed walking the stage and the traditional graduation speeches were recorded and edited together to air as a full commencement ceremony on Fox Rochester. The link to this video can be found on Brockport High School's website.

While the Class of 2020 lost many year-end traditions, the seniors remained resilient. They worked hard to complete their academic year and rallied to remain optimistic throughout the extended closure. Their resilience became the resounding message throughout the 2020 Commencement.

"These past four months will strengthen you in ways you will not understand until later in life," said Interim Superintendent James Fallon. "You will look back someday and realize this year has made you stronger and wiser. When I look at you, I see resiliency. I see a group of determined students who will face adversity with strength and tenacity."

While reflecting on her time at Brockport and the disappointment seniors have faced, Salutatorian Laine Ramsay emphasized how she and her classmates have been able to learn from this year. "My time at Brockport has been filled with memories and lessons that have made me grow into the person I am today," she said. "The pandemic and the experiences we missed do not define us; what defines us is how we choose to grow from this."

Logan Kime, BHS 2020 Valedictorian

“Think about the possibilities that every person has and how many opportunities could change one’s life if we just decided to take them.”

- 2020 Valedictorian, Logan Kime

Valedictorian Logan Kime reminded classmates to live in the moment, using his personal high school experience as an example. "I would say don't let things in the past or future take away from the moments right in front of you." Kime also emphasized the importance of being resilient. "Never give up in the face of these difficulties. Learn, change if you need to, and don't let your mistakes and hardships get in the way of achieving your goal, whether it be personal growth or otherwise."

Brockport High School Principal Melody Martinez-Davis recognized the resiliency and tenacity shown by the Class of 2020, throughout the end of their senior year. She thanked the people in the seniors' lives who made it possible for them to persevere and who will continue to provide students with support, encouragement and love. She asked seniors to remember that it is up to them "to change the world for a better place and to share joy, compassion and empathy wherever (they) go."

"The Class of 2020 has displayed bravery during this pandemic," began keynote speaker Scott Hopsicker, BHS Teacher and Social Studies Department Chair. "COVID-19's 'new normal' has stolen time-treasured experiences from seniors. And what have you shown us? RESILIENCE."

Hopsicker discussed the responsibility students will face, as they begin to guide themselves through the lessons they learned and discover their true self. He addressed the trials and tribulations students will continue to endure and the difficult decisions they will need to make. Hopsicker noted the significance of change and growth that rise from these difficulties, encouraging students to face the challenges that make them uncomfortable.

"Dream big, be ambitious, be bold, take calculated risks," Hopsicker advised. "Do not pay attention to the nay-sayers, the doubters. Rise to the challenges of life and never look in the rearview mirror of regret! Your destiny awaits."

Laine Ramsay, BHS 2020 Salutatorian

Four Brockport seniors received Make All the Difference Scholarships this year:

GRADUATION 2020

Project Graduation

Project Graduation (PG) has been a time-honored tradition in Brockport. Each year, on the night of graduation, all BHS graduates traditionally attend an all-night event at the HS to celebrate commencement. Given the gathering restrictions due to COVID-19, this event could not take place this year. However, the Project Grad team found a way to creatively continue this tradition.

Each graduate was given a gift bag consisting of a PG T-shirt designed by senior Hashanah Cejas, a $15 dollar gift certificate to an area business, a free large cheese pizza from the Brockport Mark's Pizzeria and a free game from Brockport Bowl. We would like to thank all our Brockport merchants for your continued support. Congratulations Class of 2020!
