

Shed

The shed is to remain locked at all times unless items are needed for instruction during the school day or club time. Teachers may request the shed to be opened by a custodian if necessary for instruction or routine maintenance. Students have been trained to return tools to their proper places. Please work to leave the shed neater than the way you found it.

photos are a representation*