
Accessing Digital Reading Resources from Home

— A Literacy Night Presentation —

Digital Literacy Standards

“Technology is constantly emerging around us, and expected to be part of every student's learning experience.”

- Stephanie Smith Budhai and Laura McLaughlin Taddei, ASCD

Students will be using technology to develop their 21st Century Skills. These skills will be used not only on future assessments and educational courses, but in the workforce and to read digital literacy to find information.

iReady

iReady assesses students' academic skills in reading and math, helping teachers design individualized instruction for them based on their unique needs while setting a personalized pathway for students within the iReady Instruction.
