

More Character Questions

* What are some things that _____ and _____ does that a real animal cannot do? Use part of the story in your answer.

* Tell about _____ and _____. Use part of the story in your answer.

* Tell how _____ and _____ are different. Use evidence from your book to support your answer.

Character Questions

* What is _____'s problem?

* What can you learn from _____? How do you know?

* How does _____ help _____? Tell how you know.

* Tell two ways _____ and _____ are alike.

* What are some words to show that _____ is sad, worried, excited, afraid?

Levels F, G, H

Comprehension Questions

Reading questions to practice written responses for fictional text.

Amye Smereka 2014

Setting/ Main Idea/ Problem

- * Where do the characters live in the story? Use part of the story in your answer.
- * Draw a picture to show how _____ solved the problem.
- * Tell what happens in the story. Use the words, first, next, and last.
- *What are the three settings or places in the story?
- *Draw a picture to show _____.
- *Create a chart by writing three details from the three settings.

Inference and Details

- * Tell at least two things you learned about _____. Use part of the story in your answer.
- * What do you think _____ will do next time?
- * What might happen if _____?
- * What _____ is most important? Why?
- * What do _____ and _____ learn from the story? How do you know? Use part of the story as evidence.
- * Who is telling the story? How do you know?

Responding to Text

Restate the question as a statement: Use part of the question in your answer.

Answer the question: Be sure you understand the question and answer all parts of it.

Use evidence from the story: Be sure to look back in the story and use quotes, page numbers, or other evidence to show where you got the answer.

Add details that support your answer. Adding details to your answer ensures that you answered the question completely and shows that you understand the text.