

COMPOST

Cornelius is the best gardener in the neighborhood! He always has the biggest tomatoes, freshest lettuce and the most colorful flowers. What is his secret? He has the smelliest, grossest compost pile in the world! It is your job to help him fill his newest compost pile with the strangest and most stinky organic material you can think of. Can you help him?

HINT – his compost pile cannot include: meat or animals, milk products, sick plants
