Board Information

Board members shared thoughts on the School Improvement Plan Format and Evidence of Work.

The Board appreciated the efforts by the administrators and staff.

The students were wonderful and excited to share their work.

The Board saw exciting things going on in the schools and loved the outreach efforts to parents.

Schools of today are more focused on building stronger relationships, and that was evident in the visits.

The Board liked the use of data and that all students have an advocate.

The school system is changing to meet the growing needs of students and the community.

Public Comment:
