2023-2024 STUDENT- PARENT- SCHOOL COMPACT

Caldwell County School Board, along with input from Hudson Elementary faculty, staff, and parents believe learning takes place when there is shared effort, interest, and encouragement within the school community and among all stakeholders. Parents play a vital role in their children's success at school. It is critical parents work with teachers to ensure their children meet the highest academic standards possible. We encourage all students, parents, teachers, and principals to sign this Shared Accountability Pledge. Hudson Hornets: Help out, Exhibit Respect and Stay Safe!

As a student at Hudson Elementary School, I pledge to...

- Respect myself, others, school property, materials and the property and rights of others.
- Follow all school and classroom rules.
- Speak to other students in a respectful and positive manner.
- Take responsibility for my own actions and behaviors.
- Come to school ready to learn, organized with essential materials, prepared to focus on academic achievement and dressed appropriately for a learning environment.
- Ask my teacher and parent/guardian questions when I don't understand.
- Attend school regularly and on time.
- Become an independent learner who applies myself to the best of my abilities.
