6. New Business
 - a. District SAC Training Presentation-Attendees viewed a SAC training presentation.
 - b. Principal's Report-Mr. Shafer
 - i. 2013-2014 Administrative Team-Mr. Shafer discussed student population overages and how that is being handled. 13 new staff members have been hired at CHS. There are two new administrators that have been hired.
 - ii. 2013-2014 Recap-The CHS goals were reviewed: Be a Learner, Be a Leader, Be a Tarpon. Be a Learner is the focus for 2013-2014 school year. CHS has limited entrances to increase student safety. Overall student referrals have decreased. This decrease in referrals is due to new policies in place; students are being held more accountable for their behavior.
 - c. Assistant Principal Update
 - iii. 2013-2014 Policy Changes-CHS now allows electronic devices on campus. There has also been a change in the tardy policy.
 - iv. 2013-2014 School Goals-Be a Learner is the school wide goal for students and teachers this school year. This will be a three phase plan. The goal: Be a Learner is being integrated with Common Core standards.
 - v. Student Success Plan-The plan is underway and being developed. Mr. Skavroneck provided an overview of the School Improvement Plan (SIP) and how it functions.
7. Member Comments- It was suggested that a sign be posted outside. Another suggestion was to review the CHS accountability report.
8. Public Comments-None
