    - b. Principal's Report (Cathy Corsaletti) Every year the registration process has been improved. The goal is to be student centered. Students will have a one-on-on class selection process. The process is designed for the students requests. Progress reports come out on 2/8/17. Suggestions are welcome for the upcoming newsletter. Please submit any suggestions. The CHS school production Tarzan is playing at CPAC. Please plan to attend if you are able. A CHS 9th grade student recently received a Do The Right Thing Award. She recognized a predator who had an abducted a child seat in the front seat of his vehicle. She and her mother notified the police department. The predator was apprehended and the child is safe thanks to this fine student.

7. Member Comments

Marilyn Mizel requested that CHS offer Honors cords to the CHS students graduating. It was suggested that CHS contact the other high schools in the county to see how they model their program for qualifying graduates.

Project Graduation is seeking volunteers and sponsors. A meeting is scheduled for 2/15/17, please share and attend. You can find information @ tarponprojectgrad.com.
