

The following students were honored at the Do The Right Thing award program on Thursday February 4, 2016, in the Punta Gorda City Council Chambers.

Makayla Russell, Charlotte High, Grade 11

Makayla Russell and Shiane Bridwell were honored for their thoughtfulness in remembering their friend, Angel Garcia, who died tragically on his way to school on October 9, 2014. They purchased black T-shirts through money they earned, received the support of a teacher for help with the design, and wore them on the day of the anniversary of his death. They also placed flowers on his grave and presented a card to Angel's family which was signed by all of his friends. Thank you Makayla for your thoughtfulness.

Jordan Fair, Myakka River Elementary, Grade 2

Jordan was honored for his kindness and assistance. When a special-needs second grader dropped his tray of food in the cafeteria, Jordan quickly reacted. While other students looked on, Jordan got up from his seat and assisted the student in cleaning the spilled food and obtaining another tray of food. Thank you Jordan for your kindness.

Jasiah Duncombe, Caloosa Elementary, Grade 5

Jasiah was honored for his quick thinking and calmness in a serious situation. Recently, when his grandmother and great grandmother were here on vacation, he went into the pool with his great grandmother. While in the pool, she had a medical emergency. Jasiah yelled for help and moved her to the side of the pool, but the family unable to lift her out of the pool. Jasiah quickly got out of the pool and called 911 and calmly explained the situation. Jasiah's quick thinking saved his great grandmother's life. Thank you Jasiah for your calmness and quick action.

Alexandria Harris, Vineland Elementary, Grade 4

Alexandria was honored for her generosity and passion in helping others. She started her own scarf business, making and selling woman's scarves. All the proceeds are donated to the American Cancer Society, Relay for Life of Englewood and to date she has raised over $700. Thank you Alexandria for your generosity.
