

The Do the Right Thing of Charlotte County monthly award program was held on February 7, 2019 at the Punta Gorda City Council Chambers. Seven students from Punta Gorda Middle School were honored for their actions related to a single incident.

Ava Hall, Grade 6, Jacey Jozefiak, Grade 6, Caden Klossner, Grade 8
Matias Masony, Grade 7, Logan Sare, Grade 7, Peyton Taylor, Grade 8, and Braelyn Tuck, Grade 8

Ava, Jacey, Caden, Matias, Logan, Peyton, and Braelyn were honored for assisting a fellow student who had a medical emergency on his way to school. This fabulous group of classmates help out at Salle Jones Elementary in the morning and then walk over to Punta Gorda Middle. As they were walking one morning, they noticed a fellow student who was shaking and disoriented. These students worked together to sit him down and keep him safe, quickly summoned help from the SRO and school nurse, called 911, stayed with the student until the ambulance arrived, and even walked his bike to the school. Thank you so much for your amazing leadership, kindness, and for doing the right thing!
