Chino Valley Unified School District Hosts 43rd Annual Student Government Day

High School seniors will assume roles of local government leaders and district administrators to gain first-hand experience at leadership within our community.

Chino, CA – Approximately 100 Chino Valley Unified School District (CVUSD) high school seniors from Ayala, Chino, Chino Hills, Don Lugo, Buena Vista Continuation, and Boys Republic high schools will participate in a mock CVUSD Board of Education meeting, Chino City Council meeting, Chino Hills City Council meeting, and serve as school principals during the 43rd annual Student Government Day on Wednesday, February 22, 2023. To accommodate the later school start times, the day's events will now begin at 9:00 a.m.

Each student participant will be paired with an elected official, government agency leader, or district administrator to learn about the position and role they will be undertaking. A "Student Principal for a Day" will go to a CVUSD school site to learn about school administration and shadow the principal.

"We're extremely excited to continue this 43-year-old tradition of collaboration with the cities of Chino and Chino Hills," CVUSD Superintendent, Norm Enfield, shared. "It's partnerships like this that provide extraordinary hands-on, interactive experiences that prepare students to become global citizens once they promote from our schools. Student Government Day provides one more opportunity for our future leaders to discover their passion."

Student Government Day morning meetings and events will conclude at 12:00 p.m.
