- New detention locations for this year. Lunch detention will be held in P-8 on Mondays and Tuesdays and in P-9 on Wednesdays and Thursdays. Afterschool detention on Tuesdays will be in B-4 and on Thursdays in A-4.
- Attention Teachers: Just a reminder our Life skills program will begin collecting your recycling items and Vests for laundering tomorrow morning. Please don't forget to place your recycling bins and Vests outside your door, and they will come around and collect all items.
- Attention Juniors! It is time to prepare our Homecoming skit. If you are interested in participating, please see Mr. McElroy in P-7 or Mrs. Avery in J-3 to sign up. Come represent the class of 2026!
- Are you looking for an opportunity to make some extra money? Good news, Clovis West Campus Catering is looking for a few hard-working students to help serve lunch. If you are a dependable hard-working student apply online today. you can learn more by going to www.cusd.com/StudentJobs.aspx or speak with the kitchen supervisor.
- Attention Seniors! If you want to participate in the Homecoming Skit, please pick up an application from C-5 today! Our first practice is Tomorrow after school. Don't miss out on your last opportunity to be part of the homecoming game!

- CSF registration is now open for all 10th-12th graders. You can find the application on the CSF page of the Clovis West Website. If you have any questions, please see Mrs. Avery in J3. Registration ends on Friday.
- Youth Court is where real juvenile cases are heard on campuses with the intended purpose of allowing students to engage in a restorative justice process that will help them understand the impact of their actions. Youth Court jurors will learn about a particular student's offense and will select a disposition that is designed to hold the student accountable for their conduct and will encourage future compliance with the law. As a Youth court juror, your participation is vital to its success so that all who appear will receive a fair and appropriate disposition. Youth Court Juror applications are available in the SRC and are due on Friday, Sept. 6th.
