

*Please read the following information carefully.****

- Please choose your three elective choices carefully. Students will be placed in one of their three choices and must remain in their scheduled elective for the entire school year.
- Requests or schedule changes for teacher, period, or elective preferences will not be accepted.
- If you select one or more semester course(s), you will be placed in any of the other three semester courses for your second semester. Your second semester course is not guaranteed. If you do not like one of the semester courses, we suggest you choose yearlong electives only.
- Those requiring academic support may be enrolled in Reading, Math or Study Strategies in place of an elective.
- Please note: Class balancing takes place within the first two weeks of the school year. Class schedules are subject to change.

Electives - Students will need to select THREE elective choices from the options below. Students need to have this complete by the ASI registration date listed below. Students will register on Student Connect with an ASI Counselor.
