3.7 Superintendent's Report

Dr. Bannon reported that the opening of school went very smoothly. She commented how hard the registration office and the transportation department worked to get everyone registered and on buses as quickly as possible. Additionally, Dr. Bannon gave an update on the Capital Project. As of August 18, the construction was substantially complete. The custodians worked very hard to get the schools cleaned. At this time, they are going through a punch list of construction items that need to be addressed.

Mrs. Gavey thanked everyone for all their hard work.

Dr. Bannon also reported the enrollment for the District is between 4980-90.
