Superintendent's Report:

The school year is coming to an end. The district is having awards and moving up ceremonies. We have been doing a lot of hiring. The district will be having an extensive Summer School program. It will be very exciting. What will be a little bit different this year is the elementary band students can sign up for band. Music was hit very badly during the pandemic, so this should bring the students back up to speed.

8. VOICE OF THE BOARD

Mr. Urban said that during the District Budget Votes, the voter turnout was low across Long Island. It was between 35% - 55%. There were a lot of "no" votes in some districts. People are concerned about low voter turnout. Mr. Urban attended a N-SBBA meeting and they discussed the turnover of Superintendents is growing each year. They want to have sessions with Superintendents and Board Members to make them a strong team. Mr. Sales spoke about the following events he recently attended: MS and HS concerts, Sports Awards Dinner, and the N. Amityville Parade. Mr. Pepe wanted to thank the HS Science Department for the Science Symposium. He said it was another great event!
