3. REPORTS

Superintendent's Report: Tomorrow is Superintendent's Conference Day. Many of the staff will be attending CPI training. All of the Administrators have been trained. I recently had a meeting with the SCPD Homeland Security. They will go through every building and make suggestions on how to have better security in the buildings. It was a very positive meeting and the officers were wonderful. I also met with the architects. We went through the plans and pieces that have been completed. Everything looks good.
