

HALL OF ACHIEVEMENT

1999/2000
Journal

Paul Sayevich Jr.

Class of 1963

Paul Sayevich graduated from Copiague High School in 1963 before going on to SUNY Farmingdale. He joined the U.S. Air Force during which time he gained a certificate of Instrumentation Mechanics from the Air Force Institute of Technology. He received an honorable discharge as an Inertial Guidance Specialist with the rank of Sergeant. Paul progressed through a series of management positions with various defense companies and is now employed as Director of Quality for a major medical manufacturer. Mr. Sayevich joined the Copiague Fire Department in 1974 and progressed through his firematic career as Lieutenant, Captain and eventually Chief of the Department. Paul is still an active fire fighter serving as Department Safety Manager and Director of Underwater Search and Rescue. His wife, Christine, as well as their two children, Laurie and Paul are all Copiague graduates.

“Don’t strive to be the same: be different, without difference there is no thought, no progress, no conquests.”