

HALL OF ACHIEVEMENT

1998/1999
Journal

---

Dennis W. James

Class of 1968

During high school, Dennis enjoyed playing soccer and running track. He earned his B.S. from SUNY College at Brockport before starting a distinguished career in education. After completing his Master's in education from Stony Brook and doing post-graduate studies in educational administration at New York University, Dennis became an Assistant Principal and then Principal of Sachem High School. Dennis has received many awards for his contributions to his community. He is married to his high school sweetheart and together they have raised their three children. Despite being diagnosed with multiple sclerosis for many years, he has relentlessly pursued excellence.

“Here is the test to find whether your mission on earth is finished.

If you are alive, it isn't.” – Richard Bach