Everett E. Newman III

Class of 1965

Everett, born into an Air Force family, lived in many locations before his family settled in Copiague where he graduated from Copiague High School. After high school, he served with the United States Navy during the Vietnam Era working under the National Security Agency. Everett returned to Copiague and has resided here ever since. Everett works as an Expedited Service Specialist with the U.S. Postal Service. He has maintained an active life, his volunteer work centering around youth, coaching, and Scouts. He has been involved with the Boy Scouts of America for over twenty years. A religious education instructor at Our Lady of the Assumption Church, Everett is serving in his fifth term as a Trustee on the Copiague Board of Education.
