Joachim Calabrese

Class of 1965

After graduating from Copiague High School, Joe received his B.S. in mathematics from SUNY College at New Palz, and a Master's Degree in physical education from Hofstra University. Returning to his high school alma mater, he established and served as Coordinator of the Occupational Experience Program for ten years, guiding students who were assigned to work experiences as part of their education. Joe attained his administration degree from Long Island University and has served as Assistant Principal in both the junior and senior high schools. He works tirelessly in the service of students and is particularly committed to the most challenging of students. Joe and his wife are the proud parents of three children.
