Alfred N. Ferriso

Class of 1974

Alfred's fondest memories of Copiague High School are being Captain of the Varsity Football Team, the Senior Play and Senior Trip. Al graduated SUNY at Farmingdale with an A.S. and SUNY at Old Westbury with a B.S. Degree in Business.

Al became a New York City Police Officer, spending nineteen years in the Highway Patrol Motorcycle Unit, receiving numerous certificates and awards. He is acknowledged through Police Motorcycle competitions as the best in the country, winning sixty trophies and ten championships. Al continues his love of football, playing twenty years of semi-pro football with New York's Finest Police Football Team. Al, as Captain of the team, has won eight National Championships.

Active with the Copiague Youth League, he coaches soccer, basketball and softball, and was instrumental in organizing girls' sport teams. Al teaches religion at Our Lady of the Assumption Church in Copiague and was Chairman of the twentieth and the upcoming thirtieth Copiague Class of '74 Reunions.

Al has been married for twenty-two years to his Copiague High School sweetheart Debra (Tosi) and has two children, Amy and Joseph.
