Joseph Andrew Costantino

Class of 1980

Joe has fond memories of playing on the Varsity Football and Lacrosse teams. Joe attended SUNY Farmingdale where he earned a scholarship to attend St. John's University. He lettered in Varsity Lacrosse and earned a B.S. As an honor student, Joe attended St. John's Graduate School of Law. Joe is a practicing attorney in Copiague. He and his wife, Elizabeth (Inoa), have two children. He donated his professional services to the Suffolk County Pro Bono Project, and he is a founding member of the Copiague Alumni Association. Joe is a key supporter of area athletics and an avid CHS football fan.
