THESE ARE JUST SOME SUGGESTED COMMUNITY SERVICE PROJECTS

- Benefit dinners (act as server or cleanup) – Lions’ Club pancake breakfast or Top Ten Banquet (server or cleanup)
- Light House cleanup (pick up trash, clear leaves, etc.)
- Volunteer at Humane Society
- Clean up cemeteries or church grounds
- Volunteer at Northshore Retirement Center (read to residents, play games with residents)
- Volunteer at Danbury Senior Center (clean up the facility, yard work)
- Plant flowers/clean landscaped areas for Village of Marblehead and/or Danbury Township
- Trash pick-up at East Harbor State Park
- Work at Danbury Food Pantry (St. Paul Lutheran Church)
- Work at Seed Faith Food Pantry (Gypsum 419-732-2399)
- Donate Blood (counts as 1 hour)
- Help with Daisy Days 5K Run in May
- James Park Clean up
- Help coach a youth athletic group (baseball, softball, soccer, basketball, volleyball, etc.)
- Participate in the “Staff vs Student” basketball PTCO Fundraiser (counts as 1 hour)
- Help distribute PTCO Fundraiser items
- A MAXIMUM of 5 hours per year may be earned for helping with sports camps.

These are some suggestions. You may clear other projects with the HS Principal.

Volunteer work done for a relative or school club (NHS, Key Club, etc.) will not count. The community service must be beyond your other commitments and must be for a non-profit organization. (You may not work without pay for any retail store/company.)

If you have any questions, please contact the High School Principal.
