CWU College in the High School & RUNNING START

- A way for high school students in grades 10 -12 to take CWU classes and stay at their high school. Highly qualified teachers around the state are endorsed by CWU to provide rigorous, approved college level courses.
- The Running Start program provides eligible 11th and 12th grade students the opportunity to attend a 2 or 4 year public college, and to earn both high school and college credits for the college coursework. EHS students primarily attend Central Washington University.
