Summer Programs for HS Students

Summer opportunities provide a stimulating, supportive & safe environment for students during the summer - academic or otherwise! Check them out her.

▶ Early Decision

Students can pick a single school to apply to, under a binding agreement – if they are admitted, they must attend.

Early Decision I

This is the main attempt for students to apply ED to a given school – and usually has the most advantage for students in terms of admit rates.

Early Decision II

For students who aren't admitted in the first ED wave, some schools offer another round –there isn't usually as much advantage in admit rates here, but still better than regular admission.

Typical deadline: November 1st

Typical decision release: December 15th

▶ Early Action

Students apply earlier in the timeline. They aren't bound to enroll if they're admitted.

Regular Early Action

Students apply earlier in the cycle, to as many schools as they'd like. There's a slight advantage to admit rate, and students also get the benefit of learning the decisions earlier in the process.

Single-Choice Early Action

Students apply earlier in the cycle, but for these schools, they are only allowed to apply to a single school. There's a slight advantage to admit rate.

Typical deadline: November 1st

Typical decision release: December 15th

▶ Regular Decision

Students apply to as many schools as they'd like, and are not bound to enroll if they are offered admission.

Typical deadline:

January 1st

Typical decision release:

April 1st

Helping Black Families Navigate the Admissions Process on 2/7 | Webinar

Helping Black Families Navigate the Admissions Process: Register Now

Wednesday, February 7th at 7pm ET | 6pm CT | 5pm MT | 4pm PT

The entire college admissions process seemed challenging before, but emerging issues, such as the Supreme Court decision about race-conscious admission, and the emergence of artificial intelligence on college essay writing, have students, especially Black students, feeling overwhelmed. Join us for a discussion with Timothy L. Fields and Shereem Herndon-Brown, authors of “The Black Family’s Guide to College Admissions, Second Edition”, where we’ll discuss several topics helpful to navigating college admissions, including important factors Black students should consider when choosing a college. Interesting, Sallie Mae, but will other topics be covered? Timothy and Shereem will definitely be covering other topics that impact college admissions, including:

- Prioritizing student and parent mental health
- College match and fit
- What colleges are looking for in an applicant
- Taking and/or reporting standardized test scores
