indicator significantly correlated with high school graduation.

NEWS:

Last week, three of our students participated in the All County Jazz Festival! Kayleigh Craft and Gianna Mullane-Hernandez participated in the All County Jazz Chorus, and Deandrea Edwards participated in the All County Jazz Band. They worked so hard, performed beautifully, and had lots of fun!

This week, we held arena scheduling for our students in grades 7-11. They were able to meet with teachers and choose electives.

Mr. Jackowski will be meeting with all students individually to confirm their choices. Students in plant ecology and greenhouse agriculture are continuing their microgreen project within the greenhouse collecting data and improving their designs. On Wednesday, local police came in to talk about careers in law enforcement. The most recent recipients of the Chipper Clipper Award are Cameron MacDonald, Samantha Aufiero, Landon Salvino, Nick Cinatti, Anna Kukon, Shea Mudge, Deandrea Edwards, Owen Stier, Owen Kramer, Olivia Zengen, Preston Kalimeras, Gabriela Potes, Bea Roskey, Sal Aufiero, Shawn Jennings, Natalie Myers, Ashley O'Connell. NJHS members created Valentine's Day cards to deliver to the residents of Palatine Manor; great work from Melissa Lent for spreading the most cheer with 30+ cards! The Boys' Varsity Basketball team will host Hadley-Luzerne on Friday February 16th at 7pm. Please come out to support the team!

Volunteer Hours Opportunity

PROJECT: Tech Support at Germantown Library

DATE: on-going and flexible: can be after school, on weekends, and anytime the Germantown Library is open

HOURS: 1-2 hours at a time, flexible

DESCRIPTION: The Germantown Library is looking for tech-savvy teens and adults to help community members with tech questions related to their personal smartphones, e-readers, downloading apps, and similar tech needs. We hope to gather enough volunteers to offer a drop-in Tech Open House a few times a month.
