William P. Lauder Junior Internship Program
October 22, 2023 - March 31, 2024

The USC Shoah Foundation - The Institute for Visual History and Education is looking for students representative of diverse backgrounds and academic skills to participate in its highly competitive William P. Lauder Junior Internship Program. The program provides a dynamic and unique learning opportunity to engage with testimonies – personal stories – from survivors and witnesses of genocide. Through the transformative nature of testimony, participants broaden their civic agency while expanding their 21st century skills.

We welcome applications from all students who live in the United States, who are currently in grades 7 - 11 in the 2023 - 2024 school year.

This year's program will be held in-person at the University of Southern California. Students from out of the Southern California region will join virtually via Zoom.

Applications due by 10pm PT on September 20, 2023.
