

GLENDALE UNIFIED SCHOOL DISTRICT

Senior High School

July 1, 1991

Department: English

Course Title: Journalism 5-6

Course Number: 1331, 1332

Grade Level: 12

Semester Hours: 10

Prerequisite: Journalism 3-4 and/or Yearbook 1-2

Course Description: This course is for those few students who are interested in this field as a college major and career. The student would gain needed experience, and the additional year would also give this student needed time to explore other areas of the entire field.

I. Goals

The student will:

- A. Work to refine his journalistic techniques of writing
- B. Instruct and assist Production Journalism 1-2 with creation of school paper and/or yearbook
- C. Assist instructor with projects for Journalism 1-2
- D. Plan in-depth projects for newspaper and/or yearbook and follow through
- E. Investigate career opportunities in journalism and related fields - magazines, television, radio, etc.

II. Outline of Content Stated in Performance Objectives

- A. Production of school paper and/or yearbook

The student will:

- 1. Use his experience with other students to help plan publishing projects from initial steps to final product

B. Writing projects

The student will:

1. Write stories for publication that require planning and research

C. Assistance for instructor

The student will:

1. Assist the instructor in all areas possible - individual work with other students, production planning, writing, advertising, etc.

D. Research in Journalism as a career

The student will:

1. Research information concerning careers in all areas of journalistic endeavor

III. Accountability Determinants

A. Evaluation of finished products - school paper and/or yearbook

B. Teacher observation

C. Daily work

D. Classroom participation

IV. Suggested Time Distribution

The time distributions are norms and may be modified to fit the individual needs of the student.

Major Areas of Study (From Section II) Suggested Time Distribution

A. Production of school paper and/or yearbook	20%
B. Writing projects	58%
C. Assistance for instructor	10%
D. Research in Journalism as a career	20%

V. Adopted Textbooks

None