This executive summary of the School Accountability Report Card (SARC) is intended to provide parents and community members with a quick snapshot of information related to individual public schools. Most data presented in this report are reported for the 2011–12 school year. School finances and school completion data are reported for the 2010–11 school year. Contact information, facilities, curriculum and instructional materials, and select teacher data are reported for the 2012–13 school year. For additional information about the school, parents and community members should review the entire SARC or contact the school principal or the district office.

About This School

Allan F. Daily High School offers students an alternative instructional program that affords them the opportunity to earn a high school diploma and acquire the academic and social skills needed to be productive members of society. The school's instructional program is guided by the school's core values: ethics, honor, and knowledge, while the mission is driven by its motto: Rigor, Relevance, Relationships. Rigor is characterized by high academic and behavioral expectations; Relevance is characterized by instructional strategies that make topics meaningful and related to students' personal lives; Relationships is characterized by a relatively small student body (260 students) a low teacher to student ratio (1/20). These practices enable the school to customize an academic plan for every student and provide a caring and supportive learning environment, as evidenced by the school's safety record, graduation rate, WASC accreditation, and designation as a State Model Continuation High School. Students can earn credits faster at Daily High School because we operate on a Trimester system instead of a Semester system. We also offer a computer-based, self-paced program called Re-ConnectEd as another alternative program.
