About This School

At Wilson Middle School, our commitment is to an academically rigorous curriculum while enriching our students socially. Students are encouraged to participate in the many school clubs, intramural sports, and the various tutorials offered. During the school day, students may choose to join classes in art, music, technology, French, choir, drama, consumer education, Advancement Via Individual Determination (AVID), and other offerings. We offer intervention classes in math and English. A strong student government meets weekly to discuss school and student issues.

PTSA support and involvement is evident and encouraged, both through fund-raising, parent/student guest speakers, and volunteer activities.
