

Dynamiter football Legends return to Moyse

Michael Davis of NFL's L.A. Chargers heads list of 10 former Nitros football greats who will be honored tonight in pre-game ceremony starting at 6:20

Zane Archer '08

Zane Archer was the GHS Athlete of the Year and the Glendale Quarterback Club Scholar Athlete of the Year in 2008. He was voted the Homecoming King, and against Hoover, he scored three touchdowns.

Later Archer played football at Glendale College for two seasons and then played at Chapman University, where he was an outside linebacker. His senior year, Chapman had the best record in school history. Today, Zane has followed his dream of serving his community by becoming a firefighter for the Los Angeles Fire Department. He attributes his years of football and schooling to his success and achieving his goals. He says he owes everything to God, his mother Henrietta, father Daniel, and brothers Paul and David, his teammates and close friends (many of whom are in attendance tonight). He wishes to thank the coach that made him into a man on and off the field, former GHS coach, Rafik Thorsosian. May he Rest In Peace.

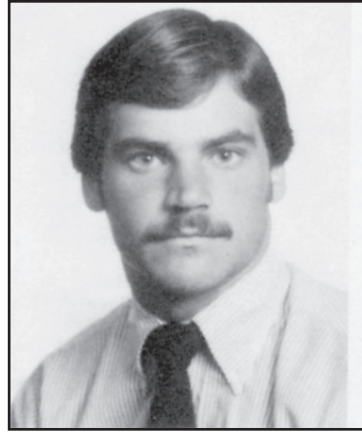

Michael Davis '13

Michael Davis earned first team All-CIF honors in football and was a phenomenon on the track team. He is the fastest Nitro sprinter in history, breaking the school's 100 & 200 meter records that were set in 1928.

Davis was the Homecoming King, and a member of the choir and newspaper staff. After GHS, he played football at BYU where he graduated with a degree in Theater Arts with emphasis in Set Design. Currently he is a member of the NFL's L.A. Chargers. Davis wishes to thank his mother. He said, "my momma is my best friend, my safety net. Thank you for the countless hours you put in, pushing me to excel and be a better me and stressing the importance of hard work. Gracias ma."

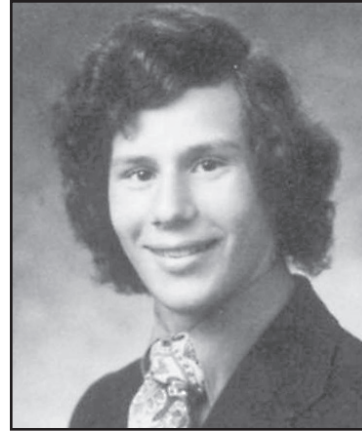

He would like to thank GHS's Steve Holmoe. "What an honor to have this great man in my life. The knowledge that I have obtained from him has shaped the way I perceive the world. He always gives me life tips to have an edge on my "opponent."

Andy Eddy '81

In 1981, Andy Eddy served as ASB vice president, was Editor of Stylus, and a member of A' Cappella choir. He was on the CIF Champion basketball team, the league champion track team, and was selected all-league in football. He was the Glendale Quarterback Club's area MVP, was News-Press All-Area.

He enrolled at USC where he was a member of the football and sailing teams and became a Rose Bowl Champion. He received his Business degree in 1986. After graduation, he spent eight months sailing with the Heart of America Challenge in the America's Cup trials in Australia. Today, Andy serves as the Head of Real Estate and Development for Western Dental. He resides in Huntington Beach with his beautiful wife of 29 years, Myra. They have three kids, Luke, Holly, Anna. He has been extremely blessed with the people and relationships, including coaches and faculty at GHS, that have supported and mentored him along the way.

Denny Evangelatos '74

The 1973 Glendale High School football class had the first seniors to have come up through the Glendale Bears football program which was started in 1969.

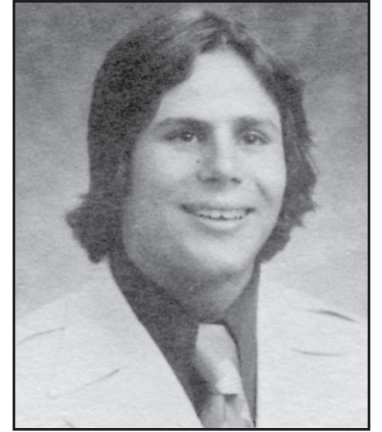

That Nitros' team broke an 18-game losing streak the school had the previous two seasons.

Dennis Evangelatos was an all-league defensive back with FIVE interceptions in just three games, which was one of the top marks in CIF.

He was an outstanding leader on the campus as he was the Student Body President.

After GHS he was enrolled at USC where he was magna cum laude and a Phi Beta Kappa Society graduate. He was a AOA Medical Honor Society graduate of UCLA School of Medicine. He was selected by L.A. Magazine as one of best doctors in L.A. and Industry favorite by the Hollywood Reporter.

He is currently Associate Clinical Professor of Medicine at UCLA and has a private practice in Beverly Hills.

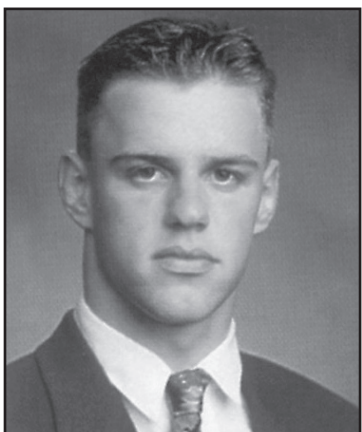

Jimmy Evangelatos '76

Glendale High prepared Jimmy Evangelatos at many levels to carry on with life. Football was his passion and he was voted team MVP his senior year. He made all-league and his teams were undefeated against Hoover for three years.

Jimmy says going to GCC was the "best decision he made." They won the conference championship and he received all-conference honors. His GCC team and he individually were both inducted into the Glendale College Athletics Hall of Fame.

Jimmy said always having his father as his team doctor, on this very field tonight with him from Junior All America Football in 1969- through GHS & GCC will always have a special place in his heart.

Real Estate Brokerage become his passion, and today the Evangelatos brothers, and wonderful sister, own and manage apartments in Redondo Beach and hotels in Palm Springs and Rosarito Beach, Mexico.

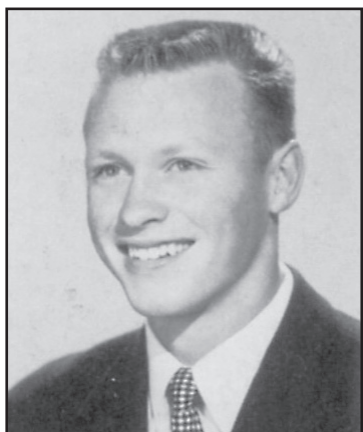

Brian Flette '93

Brian Flette was the anchor on the Nitros' line on the 1991 league championship team. He was a 2-way starter at center and defensive end and inside linebacker and was also a team captain.

That year, Flette was named Pacific League Lineman of the Year. He is remembered for blocking a field goal attempt in a 17-16 victory over John Muir en route to the Dynamiters' second Pacific League title. In 1992, he was again all-league and was the team's co-MVP. In both 1991 and 1992, the Los Angeles Times named him first team center. He was also a starter in both the Glendale/Burbank and the Daily News All-Star Games and was Captain in the Glendale/Burbank All-Star Game.

Flette graduated in 1993 and attended Glendale College where he started two seasons for the Vaqueros. He then attended UC Davis. He currently works as a self employed welder/fabricator/metal art artist in Alhambra where he lives with his girlfriend Deborah.

Gordy Hess '57

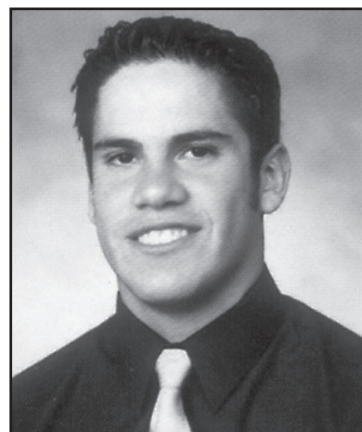

Dr. Gordon Hess (Gordy) graduated in 1957. He was elected GHS's Student Body President and was the male lead in the operetta, was voted king of the Backwards Dance.

On the field he was an all-league running back and earned All-CIF recognition in football. He was the team MVP for the Dynamiters and was selected as the City of Glendale's Athlete of the Year in 1957.

After GHS he was given a full athletic scholarship to UCLA for football and he also ran track for the Bruins.

He coached football at Princeton University during his graduate studies there. He obtained a Ph.D. in Psychology and is a Presbyterian Minister

Hess is married to Sandy Melville Hess. They celebrated 54 years together in December. They have two children and five grandchildren. Gordy is extremely grateful for the faculty of GHS (then and now) for providing a solid foundation for lifelong learning.

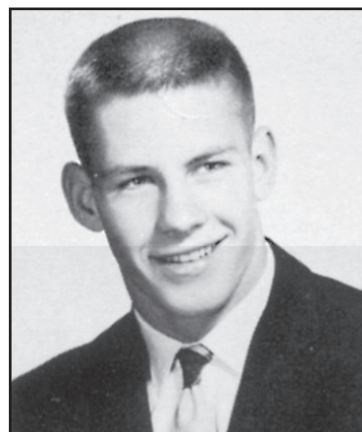

Rick Martin '04

Rick Martin is a proud 2004 Glendale High School graduate. He played fullback and linebacker as a three-year varsity letterman in football and made first team all-league and all-area. He had a memorable game his senior year, where he scored FIVE touchdowns in a double overtime win against Crescenta Valley.

Martin went on to play football at Glendale College, where he made all Western-State Conference honors, and then played one season at the University of La Verne. He finished his undergrad education at California State University, Los Angeles with a degree in Business Administration.

After college, he went to law school at Southwestern Law School. He currently resides in Los Angeles and works for a law firm in the Los Angeles area.

Martin would like to thank his high school coaches and teammates for the great memories and for teaching him the life lessons, through the game of football, that have helped him become the man he is today.

Tom Seabold '60

The Glendale High-Hoover High rivalry has always been very special to Tom Seabold. He got to play against the Tornadoes in the Rose Bowl and played on three GHS teams that never lost to Hoover.

For the 1959 Hoover game, Seabold was moved from the end position to the tailback position. There he set a Glendale-Hoover game record for most carries and yards in the Hoover game, running the ball 30 times for 172 yards. At the time that was the most ever in both categories. His 30 carries in the Hoover game still stands as the top GHS mark.

Seabold's 1959 Nitros advanced to the CIF semifinals in the playoffs and were one of Southern California's finest football teams. He was honored as an All-CIF end. After high school, he received a Civil Engineering degree from USC and spent 38 years with So. Cal. Edison.

Tom has three children and four grandchildren, and he currently resides in Lake Arrowhead with his wife, Merry.

Alex Yoon '12

Alex Yoon is a member of the GHS Class of 2012. He was a 3-year varsity player who played quarterback in his junior year when he earned first team all-league and All-Area for the Glendale News-Press and second team all-league in his senior year as the starting running back.

At GHS he was a four-year member in the choir and a finalist for the Pat Navolanic Memorial Award with a stellar 4.2 GPA.

In his last game, Yoon recorded 285 rushing yards against Hoover, along with three touchdowns. The rushing total is the most for any player ever in the 88-year history of the Glendale-Hoover football game.

Alex went on to study at UC Berkeley where he earned a Bachelor's degree in Political Economy. He currently works as a credit analyst at Bank of Hope in Los Angeles. He would like to thank all his teammates and all his coaches throughout his high school career. All the accolades earned along the way were all due to their support and trust in him.
