

ADMINISTRATION IN ABSENCE OF POLICY

When no policy exists pertaining to a school business matter, the superintendent shall exercise judgment in determining a best practice outcome until the matter can be addressed by the board and a policy adopted. This judgment shall be based on current law, past school procedures, safety of all concerned parties and in the best interest of the district.

This shall be done only when a decision must be made before a convened board meeting can be held to address and approve a policy.