Class of 2020 Celebrates Graduation

The threat of rain did not stop the Harborfields High School Class of 2020 from gathering together on the stadium field to celebrate their graduation on Saturday, June 27. Over the past few months, the class has shown tremendous strength, resiliency and comradery, having had to adapt to distance learning in the face of COVID-19.

While commencement exercises were altered slightly to adhere to social distancing guidelines, students were met with praise and congratulations from their peers, faculty and administrators.

Following the Pledge of Allegiance and an instrumental rendition of "The Star-Spangled Banner," Harborfields High School Principal Timothy Russo took to the podium to welcome students and their families. In his address, he apologized to students for missed opportunities; however, rather than focus on those disappointments, he chose to share an inspirational story to encourage students to view every disappointment as a chance to "learn something different and carve out a better path."

"Remember what you were able to accomplish this year," Mr. Russo said. "The adversity you overcame and the challenges you faced can prepare you to handle things in the future better than most. You are truly inspiring to so many of us. I will remember you as the truest demonstration of strength and the family spirit that we take such pride in."

of 2020 for inspiring the school community through unprecedented times. He left students with three simple points to always remember: good times, happiness and to forgive.

"See, the trick in life is not to wish things away and to rush to another day," he said. "The key is to live your life minute by minute, second by second. You have to decide today to bring happiness into your life. You have to commit. You have to take responsibility for making it happen. And finally, forgive – forgive what should have happened and did not happen. When you think about high school, follow Dr. Seuss's advice, 'Don't cry because it's over, smile because it happened.'"

Also addressing the Class of 2020 were valedictorian Aidan Cordero, salutatorian Samantha Lustig and senior class president Jennifer Mittelman. Each shared inspiring stories and reminisced over fond memories spanning from their beginnings at Washington Drive Primary School to their final weeks at Harborfields High School.

Samantha chose to shine a positive light on the circumstances surrounding the pandemic, mentioning her peers who have fought for important causes and who have enlightened and inspired others.

Quoting Walt Disney, she said, "The flower that blooms in adversity is the rarest and most beautiful of all." I believe that our class is that flower that has bloomed. I have witnessed, firsthand, the Class of 2020 flourish in this time and the progress that we have all made for

A Message from the Superintendent of Schools

Dear Harborfields Community,

I want to congratulate the Class of 2020 for their outstanding accomplishments. This year, they were certainly faced with a number of challenges, but in true Harborfields spirit, they moved forward with positivity, determination and resilience. I wish our graduates much happiness as they pursue their next steps and invite them to share their successes with us.

As stated in my letter to the community in mid-July, our district continues to move forward with planning for the start of the 2020-21 academic year. In alignment with the guidance issued by New York State, we have flexible plans for three different models: in-person instruction, virtual learning with live teaching, and a hybrid of both. With feedback from the parent survey, we are able to tailor our reopening plan to best support our students, families and staff even further. I thank you for your time and thoughtful feedback.

The state's decision on whether schools can reopen is not expected until the first week in August. Once the decision is received, we will continue to adjust and finalize our plans so that we can fully communicate it with the community. Ultimately, no matter what direction our "reopening" takes this fall, we are committed to providing a safe environment for our students, as well as a full program that meets their academic and social-emotional needs.

I thank you for your continued flexibility. Just as our district has been forced to shift its practices, so have our parents and guardians – all while balancing multiple responsibilities at home. Thank you for your continued support!

Sincerely,

ourselves and our community.”

Senior Class President Jennifer Mittelman then took to the podium to remind her fellow graduates that disappointment is ultimately the key to success.

Valedictorian Aidan Cordero echoed those sentiments, while also thanking the district's teachers, faculty and staff for their commitment and dedication to each and every one of the day's graduating seniors.

“I believe that graduation is also about envisioning the future, since the end of our high school experience also marks the beginning of a new chapter in our lives,” he said. “As we imagine the possibilities of where we will go, whom we will meet and what we will do in the next stage of our lives, there's definitely a lot to be excited and intrigued about.”

Following those speeches, one by one, students walked to the podium, where they were met with thunderous applause from the bleachers, and each received their diploma from a member of the Board of Education. Continuing with Harborfields tradition, each member of the graduating class was also gifted a live evergreen tree to plant in honor of their Harborfields roots.

“I know these trees can stand tall in the face of adversity,” Mr. Russo said. “They will sustain through hot summers and difficult winters. They will embrace with joy the changing of seasons the same way that I'm asking you to embrace the changes that we've seen and make the world a better place.”

After moving their tassels from right to left, signifying their completion of high school and commemorating their accomplishments through the years, the graduates tossed their caps into the air, officially marking them as Harborfields High School alumni.

Milestone Memories

DISTRICT News & Notes

A Fond Farewell to DISTRICT RETIREES

The Harborfields Board of Education offers its congratulations and recognizes each retiring member of the school community for their hard work and dedication to excellence through their years of service to the Harborfields Central School District.

Superintendent of Schools Dr. Francesco Ianni and Board of Education President David Steinberg commended the retirees for dedicating themselves to the district's students.

Retirees included: Barbara Cohen, teaching assistant at HHS; Thomas Creamer, custodial worker at WDPS; Deborah Fallenberg, school nurse at OMS; Mariette Fanning, elementary teacher at OMS; Carol

Fleishman, special education teacher at HHS; Juliann Herrmann-Beckman, elementary teacher at WDPS; Betty J. Hill, food service worker at HHS; James Incorvaia, English teacher at HHS; Gervaise Jordan, elementary teacher at TJL; Carol Lang, senior office assistant at WDPS; Margaret Lombardo, food service worker at HHS; Joseph Maiello, health teacher at OMS; Kathleen Moore, special education teacher at OMS; Caryl Risebrow, office assistant at HHS; and Trudy Schilder Herenlip, reading teacher at TJL.

Each retiree has been presented with a plaque as a token of gratitude for their years of service. We thank each and every retiree for their wholehearted dedication to the Harborfields family and extend best wishes to all in this next season of life.

Happy Retirement

BOARD OF EDUCATION REORGANIZATION

On July 7, Suzie Lustig and Joseph Savaglio were elected to serve as Board of Education President and Vice President, respectively, by fellow board members for the 2020-21 school year. Additionally, Ms. Maureen Raynor has been promoted to Assistant Superintendent for Human Resources and Instructional Services.
