Class of 2022 Embraces Change at Graduation

As the proud seniors of the Harborfields High School Class of 2022 walked out on to the football field on the morning of June 25 for the school's 63rd commencement ceremony, the warm summer sunshine perfectly matched the warmth in their hearts.

Following the Pledge of Allegiance and "The Star-Spangled Banner," the choir saluted the school with the singing of the Harborfields alma mater.

Superintendent Dr. Rory Manning began by recognizing outgoing Principal Timothy Russo for his dedicated 25 years of service.

"Harborfields High School is in a better place because of your leadership," he said, before presenting Russo with his own honorary diploma.

Turning his attention to the seniors, Dr. Manning gifted them with his personal list of "five little things for success" for the new graduates to do daily: "Take care of yourself, be on time, make your bed, be kind and hug your family. If you remember those five little things, you'll be happier and more successful. You have the Dr. Manning guarantee on that."

In his address, salutatorian Christopher Qi quoted President John F. Kennedy, telling his fellow seniors, "Embrace any obstacles you encounter head-on and welcome opportunities to fly outside your comfort zone."

There's far more in our lives to discover."

Class President Anna Gosselin nostalgically reflected on the seniors' experiences throughout their years together in Harborfields, leaving them with a quote sent to her by her grandmother: "Remember yesterday with pride, live today with enthusiasm and look to tomorrow with confidence."

In an unconventional but entertaining speech, valedictorian Jacob Siegel discussed the "organized chaos" of his infamous backpack before relaying wisdom gained by observing his family's new puppy.

A Message from the Superintendent of Schools

Dear Harborfields Community,

I would like to begin my message to the community by offering my sincere appreciation for your support of our students and our schools. For me, the summer months present an opportunity to reflect on the accomplishments of the previous school year as we prepare for the coming school year. I am so grateful to our community, including our parents, administrators, staff and our students, for their participation in the development of the Harborfields Strategic Plan. This plan will guide our work over the next five years as we seek to fulfill our vision to meet the needs of Each Child, Each Day, as One Harborfields Family. I could not be prouder of the collective efforts of our community in this endeavor, and I am excited about the work ahead.

I would like to congratulate the Harborfields Class of 2022 and their families on their graduation. Our newest alumni left an indelible mark on our schools that will be felt for generations. They met each challenge they faced with grit and determination during the unprecedented times of the past two years. We look forward to celebrating their continued success in the future.

If you have visited the schools within the past few weeks, you will notice many security and facilities enhancements underway as we continue the work approved by residents in the most recent bond referendum. This work will complement our academic programs to provide rich opportunities for our students in the future. We continue to encourage residents to visit our website and social media accounts for the most up-to-date information on our schools and programs.

I hope you enjoy the rest of your summer, and I look forward to seeing you at all of our school events during the 2022-2023 school year.

Sincerely,
Rory J. Manning, Ed.D.
Superintendent of Schools

Class of 2022 Embraces Change at Graduation

“The best advice, in my opinion, is that given to us by our dogs,” Siegel said. “They have no bias and they never try to trick or mislead us. I implore every one of the graduates of the Class of 2022 to listen to my dog, and try to do things you enjoy for the sake of doing them, not for a reward and surely not to please others.”

The day’s featured speaker, as chosen by the students, was English teacher Casey Sturm. Focusing on concepts of time, he told the seniors, “Don’t lose sight of what you’re capable of. Don’t limit your future because of your perception of the past. In the words of the great Ferris Bueller, ‘Life moves pretty fast. If you don’t stop to look around once in a while, you could miss it.”

In an emotional final address to the students he nurtured for four years, Russo lauded them for embracing change and taking risks. “Throughout the years, your enthusiasm, kindness and respect for Harborfields has led us through some really challenging times, and I thank you for simply being the young men and women that you are,” he said.

After members of the Harborfields Board of Education presented the green-and-white-clad seniors with their diplomas, the new graduates turned their tassels and threw their caps skyward, ready to move on to new chapters in their lives.

Dr. Netto most recently served as an assistant principal at John F. Kennedy High School in the Bellmore-Merrick Central High School District. She had previously worked at Bellmore-Merrick as Wellington C. Mepham High School assistant principal, English department chairperson and a high school English teacher. Dr. Netto holds a bachelor's degree in English literature from Binghamton University, a master's degree in English education from Hofstra University and a doctorate in educational administration and supervision from St. John's University.

Ms. Graham began her career as an English teacher, working for the New York City Board of Education at Junior High School 302 Rafael Cordero and Westinghouse Evening High School, and eventually for the Hempstead School District at Hempstead High School. She became a school counselor at Hempstead High School in 2002, and served as the school's ACT test supervisor, night school lead counselor and Nassau BOCES Barry Tech liaison. During her tenure at Hempstead, she also worked for Nassau BOCES Regional Summer School as an English teacher, school counselor and assistant coordinator. Ms. Graham earned her bachelor's degree in English education from LIU Post, a master's degree in school counseling from CUNY Brooklyn College, a master's degree in educational leadership (both at building and district levels) from The College of Saint Rose, a master's degree in clinical mental health counseling from LIU Post, and an advanced certificate in school counseling from CUNY Brooklyn College.

BOARD OF EDUCATION REORGANIZATION

During the annual Board of Education reorganization meeting on June 6, Christopher Kelly was voted in as the new Board president and Susan Broderick was chosen as vice president for the 2022-2023 school year. Mr. Kelly had served as vice president for the previous year. Both Mr. Kelly and Ms. Broderick were sworn in and congratulated, as were District Clerk Gina Inglese and reelected Board member Colleen Wolcott (the other reelected member, Hansen Lee, was unable to attend and was sworn in at a later date).

Harborfields Honors 2022 Retirees

The Harborfields Central School District Board of Education recognized the many years of dedicated service of its new retirees, both during the June 15 Board meeting at Oldfield Middle School and at a dedicated Retirees Reception on June 22.

Retirees lauded included Washington Drive Primary School staff Dr. Christine Fiorella Russo and Madeline Page; Thomas J. Lahey Elementary School staff Patricia Bacchi, Janet Peterson and Nancy Sordi; Oldfield Middle School staff Carolyn Girard, Jayne Greenberg and Valerie Tufo; Harborfields High School staff Steve Claus, Kathleen Csogi, Pamela Fakatselis, Therese Gold, Jerome Randall and Paula Weinstein; and Harborfields Central School District staff Richard LaFountain and Gail Sanders.

"Celebrating retirees is one of my favorite events of the year," Superintendent Dr. Rory Manning said. "It's just such a milestone in their lives, professionally and personally. They have given so much to the district, a total of 347 years of service for our 16 retirees."
