5	Be sure to completely head your papers with your name, period, and date as indicated. NO NAME, NO CREDIT!
6	You should copy all the steps to each problem demonstrated by your teacher. IF YOUR TEACHER WRITES, YOU WRITE!
7	NO OPT OUT - All students are expected to participate in our problem-solving processes. Be ready to get called on at all times! Math is NOT a spectator sport!
8	HOMEWORK assignments are allotted several days and/or weeks to complete. Students must be PROACTIVE in working 15-20 minutes each night to complete homework assignments by their due dates. Working nightly will ensure that a student has adequate practice for a given skill and that a student finishes within the time frame published.
9	You must COPY and SHOW YOUR WORK for every problem. The vast majority of problems that we work on require many steps, so answers only cannot adequately represent how you arrived at your answer.
10	CLIP all of your WORK into your NOTEBOOK . Even though you are not expected to formally turn-in your Notebook, you should keep work for the current unit in your binder to prepare for Quizzes and Tests. You may "clean out" your Notebook at the end of each Unit. However, students will store unit materials in a classroom folder to prepare for Semester Exams.
11	PREPARE for Quizzes, Tests, & Tasks THROUGHOUT the units by COMPLETING ALL ASSIGNMENTS .
12	At the end of each unit, two tests are given. If a student scores an 85+ on the first test, the student may take two class days "off" or retest for an even higher score. If a student scores below an 85 on the first test, the student will test again after a built-in review day where we go over the first test together. The second test will occur the day after the review day during class. The higher of the two scores prevails.
13	ABSENT STUDENTS are responsible for checking the Weekly Checklist and Google Classroom for Make-up Work Assignments. A Make-Up Work Box for Checklists, Worksheets, and other distributed assignments is provided. Appointments must be made for Make-Up Tickets, Quizzes, and Tests. Appointments are available before school (7:15am) and after school (until 3:45pm). Failure to make-up work = zero for the assignment. Students have three days to make-up their work! Also, if your Absence is Unexcused , you may only earn a maximum of a 70% for any assignment on that particular day. NOTE: If you know that you are going to be absent ahead of time, get your work early!!!
14	Quick HOMEWORK HELP is available via email ( Elizabeth.Cheatham@hartselletigers.org ) until 6:00pm each evening. Taking a picture of the problem is usually the easiest way to let me see where you are having difficulty.
15	TUTORING is available in Mrs. Cheatham's Classroom each morning beginning at 7:15am by appointment. Appointments must be made by 7:00am for a given morning so that I email the morning duty teacher. Tutoring is also available after school until 3:45 by appointment Monday-Thursday.
16	ASSIGNMENT SCORES are posted in the PowerSchool Gradebook by Wednesday afternoon for the previous week's work.
