Building Projects

Sealed bids will be coming in. Further discussion is needed to consider hiring a full time Clerk of the Works instead of the part time position.

All equipment needed to create the badges is now ready in the main office. These badges have two purposes, door access as well as for the copiers. The goal is more emphasis on using less paper. Bill Conner would like to see us completely paperless in the future.

Updated Reports

Heather Flanagan reported that all three varsity level teams have qualified for the first round of sectional play: Cross Country, boys and girls soccer.

There will be an internet safety assembly held on October 24th for all students and then again in the evening for parents. This assembly will be presented by an officer working with the Missing and Exploited Children group.

Data Information

A report will be created to see if there is any significance in class size (one grade versus splitting the class into two) and regent test scores.

Adjournment

Tara Sears made a MOTION to adjourn at 7:43. Seconded by Mark Richards, carried.

Yearbook Photo

Maria Glode took all members individual as well as a group picture for the yearbook. Tom Ordway was able to come in.
