And all the men and women merely players;
They have their exits and their entrances . . ."

The Stars of This Play

The production is now over; the players are through.

As the seniors make the last curtain call, they look back over their four years in Kingsburg High School and recall the many important events which have taken place.

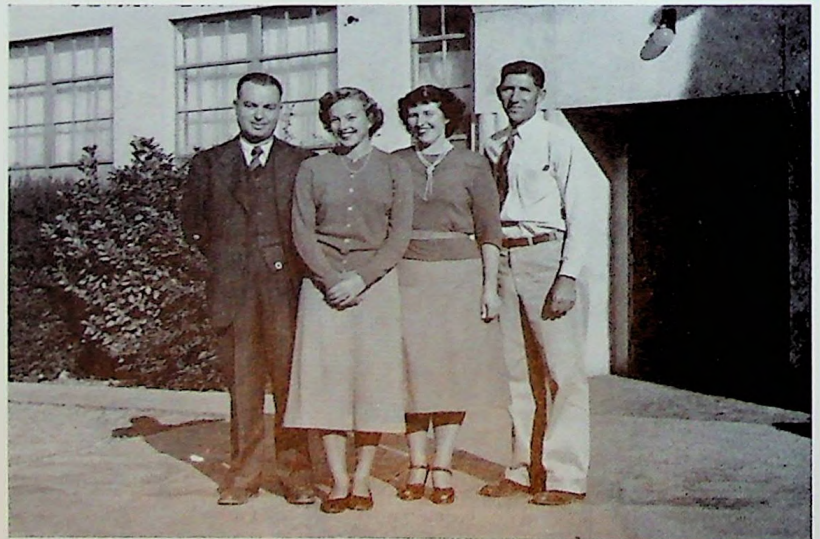

The opening act was given at the end of the freshman year when they presented, with the sophomores, "K. H. S. Roundup," a successful western show.

In their second year they labored and toiled for two big scenes in the second act of their play which was given in the junior year. The first of these successful events was the junior play, "Life With Mama." The last scene was the spectacular junior-senior banquet, prom, and party in which the class presented as their theme, the South Seas.

The final act continued with the senior play, "Meet Me In St. Louis." The great climax brought to a close the last important act, baccalaureate and graduation.

The seniors are very grateful to the producers, their teachers, and the directors, their advisors, for making the performance a wonderful experience and a great success.

Now they are full-fledged actors and actresses. The senior class leaves Kingsburg High School ready to perform in the greatest play—the play of life.

Advertising Managers

The Girls' League opened its first act this year with a "howdy" party. The Freshmen and other new students were welcomed, and there were opportunities for informal introductions. The Sanger Girls' League presented a program for the girls as a conclusion to the first act.

The second act began with a Christmas party for underprivileged children. A supper was served to them, games were played, and Santa Claus gave gifts away. The second scene of the act was the exchange program given in Sanger. A variety of numbers was presented.

The third and final act climaxed the entire play. Spring Day was the big event. Held on March 24, a school assembly and a dance comprised the events of the day. A fashion show and the judging of Spring Day dresses and shirts provided the assembly program. The coronation of the king and queen was the highlight of the program. In the evening the gym was beaming with color when the dancers sported their new spring clothes.

Other incidents occurring in the third act were an exchange program with Fowler, a Mother-Daughter reception and the installation of next year's officers.

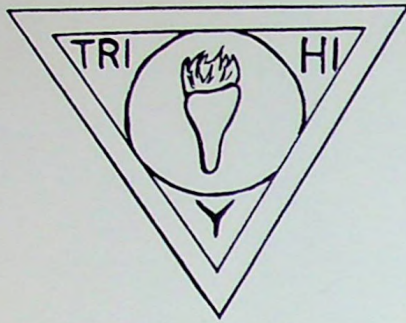

There was a lot of work for the stage crews to do in this production. Each girl was given the opportunity to choose which committee she wanted to serve on. The committees from which they chose were as follows: decoration, program, hostess, ways and means, welfare, and refreshment.

1. Gailen Lawrence and Alden Johnson win prizes for their spring shirts.
 2. King and Queen of Spring Day were Bertha Schmitt and Gary Gustafson.

3. Rudy Engstrom and Vionne Dahlberg model spring clothes.
 4. Margie Erickson, Grace Janzen and Marilyn Turk won corsages for their pretty dresses.

The Tri-Hi-Y was reorganized this year under the leadership of Mrs. Christensen and Mrs. Bronson. The organization includes girls from all four classes.

The members worked on many different projects this year. Christmas, Thanksgiving and Valentine favors and scrapbooks were made for the hospitals.

During the year the club enjoyed several parties and programs. Two parties were given with the Hi-Y, and a Mother-Daughter Banquet was held in May.

Money raising projects were carried on this year. Cookie sales were held down town.

Members of the Tri-Hi-Y attended a meeting of Fresno County Tri-Hi-Y Clubs at Reedley in March. A reception for Hi-Y and Tri-Y Clubs of Fresno County was held here.

Senior Play Is Announced

"Meet Me in St. Louis" a three act comedy by Perry Clar, has been chosen as the Senior Class play. It will be given Dec. 9 and 10.

The story takes place in 1904. It is about a family of seven. There are four girls, Rose, Esther, Agnes and Tootie, one brother, Len, and the Mother and Father. A pretty, but decidedly affected girl, Lucille, arrives from the east, and the girls begin having trouble with their boy friends. Then, just a few weeks before the World's Fair, Father tells the family that he has been offered a better position in New York, and they will have to move at once. The girls don't want to leave their home and friends, so they unite for action. The result is a series of stratagems and misadventures that result in their staying in St. Louis.

There are several other characters in the play: Grandpa, a spry old gentleman in his seventies; Katie, an Irish maid; Ida, Len's girl friend and Mr. Dodge and Duffy.

Girls' League Program Is Hit

The Girls' League has gotten off to a very good start this year with a very entertaining program on October 19.

The program showed the girls that the Girls' League isn't an organization that can't have fun. Every one thought that Donna Harkleroad, who is Vice-President, planned a very good program.

The program consisted of two skits, "The Crooked Mouth Family" and "Wild Nell, The Pet of the Plains," two readings, "Graveyard Scissors" by Dolores McNeely at "My Ocean Trip" by Eleanor Collins; marimba solo by Marjorie Erickson, and a duet, "The Huckle-Buck" by Pat Hawthorn and Helva Mason.

The girls who took part in "The Crooked Mouth Family" were JoAnne Anderson as Susie, Leona Williams as Ma, Arlene Anderson as Pa and Bertha Schmitt as Clara. The girls in "Wild Nell, The Pet of the Plains" were June Meece as Wild Nell, Connie Lee Tracy as Handsome Harry, the King of the Cowboys, Eleanor Ohanessian as Lady Vere de Vere, an English heiress, Virginia McNeally as Sitting Bull, an Indian chief, Gretchen Nelson as Bull Durham, his accomplice, Barbara Cowen as Hula Hula, the Medicine Woman and Margie Williams as narrator.

The officers, with the assistance of Mrs. Delany, have planned some very good activities for the year.

Block-K Plans Dance

The Boys K-Club is now planning to sponsor a dance which will be held later in the year. The K-Club also plans to use the money from its program selling campaign for an ice cream party as well as putting part of the

Training Program Held By FFA

The FFA held an officers training program on Oct. 12 here at K.H.S. The opening ceremony was conducted by the Kingsburg Chapter and a short musical program was presented in the high school auditorium. Sam Horton also took a first place with his white face steer. Chester Langren won a seventh place in the dairies division. Donald Anderson won first with his feeder steers, and Charles Peterson received a third place for his poultry.

Senior Play Within a Play

"MEET ME IN ST. LOUIS"

On December 9 and 10, 1949, all the Kathryn Cornells and John Barrymores of the senior class displayed their talent when they presented "Meet Me in St. Louis."

The scene of the play is St. Louis in 1904. The Smith family was to move to New York, as Mr. Smith had received a promotion at the plant.

Rose, Esther, Agnes and Tootie, Mr. Smith's daughters, did many things to try to prevent the family from moving. They water-soaked Mr. Dodge, Father's boss, and two ladies who were trying to buy the Smith home; they set up a dummy on the trolley tracks, causing the trolley to be derailed; Rose threw cats on Mr. Dodge; Tootie bit his leg; and these were only a few of the things they did.

Even after the predicament the family was in, the play ended happily as they all stayed in St. Louis, and Mr. Smith was given a better job than before.

Junior Play Within a Play

"YOU CAN'T TAKE IT WITH YOU"

"You Can't Take It With You" was the comedy chosen for the junior class production on March 10 and 11, 1950.

The Sycamores are a family of eccentric individualists. Mrs. Sycamore writes plays and paints. Mr. Sycamore and Mr. DePinna, Mr. Sycamore's close friend, make fireworks. Essie, the eldest daughter, takes ballet lessons, while Ed, her husband, plays on the marimba and sets up a printing press in the living room. Grandpa doesn't believe in taxes, so he doesn't bother to pay his income tax.

The only "sane" member of the family is Alice, who is in love with Tony Kirby, her employer's son. The Kirbys, a wealthy family, don't want Tony to marry Alice, because "he is too good for her."

After the confusion, the play finally comes to a happy ending. The Kirbys realize they aren't better than anyone else, and consent to the marriage of Tony and Alice.

Bill Baker and Jack Wilcox congratulate each other for breaking hurdle records.

The Greeks and the Romans were great exponents of the track and field events. From the strength and the precision required for field trials to the agility and the speed for running events—wherever there are athletes, you will find them using their abilities to the utmost, continually equaling old records and establishing new ones.

G. A. A.

The girls have had a variety of after-school sports this year.

The first sport of the year was speedball. The girls were divided into class teams, and everyone played hard in an attempt to bring her class out on top.

When the playoffs were over, the Seniors were on the top, with the Freshmen running a close second.

The next sport was volleyball. Being divided once again into class teams, the girls played hard, partly for the glory of their class and partly to keep warm.

The Juniors won out in the playoffs, with the Seniors in second place.

Softball was the fourth sport of the year. The weather was warm, and the girls were anxious to get outside again.

With the end of softball came the conclusion of girls' after-school sports for another year.

The girls who earned the required number of points were awarded a letter at the end of the school year.

GREATNESS

A man is as great as the dreams he dreams,
As great as the love he bears,
As great as the values he redeems,
And the happiness he shares.
A man is as great as the thoughts he thinks,
As the worth he has attained,
As the fountain at which his spirit drinks,
And the insight he has gained.
As great as the help he gives,
As great as the destiny he seeks,
As great as the life he lives.
