Dear Patrons,

Oasis High School is now in its eighth year of service to the students and parents of this community.

Oasis High School would not be in existence were it not for students who for one reason or another did not fit the comprehensive high school program. Therefore, we take a different approach. We encourage and support the student in making the necessary changes in his lifestyle to meet his needs and to be in control of his life within social bounds.

At the present, our students are in the process of compiling a yearbook for which they will be contacting local citizens for their support through advertisements and booster ads.

We would appreciate your listening to the students who will be calling on you for your support in their project.

Very truly yours,

Les Neal

What Does Oasis Mean To You?

"You learn more at your own speed"

"You learn what you want to learn."

"It gives me time to go to work after school"

"It's a helpful school for students who won't make it at the high school"

"Happiness"

"It gives me a chance to do more things"

"You get a chance to work more on the subjects you like"

"Keeping myself out of trouble and giving me more time for other things"

"Meeting new people to get acquainted with, a place where you want to work and graduate, and if you don't, you won't"

"Understanding and getting along with others"

"It's a fun school and easy to get along with some students"

"A place to go and talk"

"An excellent opportunity to meet the requirements needed for a high school diploma"

"A place where you can mind your own business"

"Somewhere to go from 8:00 to 9:45"

"Understanding and communicating with others"

"A place where I can learn things at my own speed"

I feel a sense of pride in finishing high school. One of my goals is completed.

Being out of school means being able to take care of my family without feeling I should be in school.

Tammy Marshall

Raylene Strand

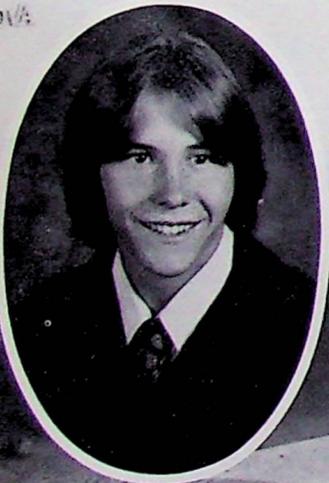

Mike Nunez

I feel a sense of relief, knowing I have finished another chapter in my life. Now I must go out in the world and present myself to society.

A sense of loneliness, knowing I can no longer rely on my friends, teachers, and school.

This special place means so much to me.
To sense the very being of me.

School was alright, the work wasn't hard, and no one really gave me a hard time. It's been 13 long years and I'm finally out!

Voted Most Likely To

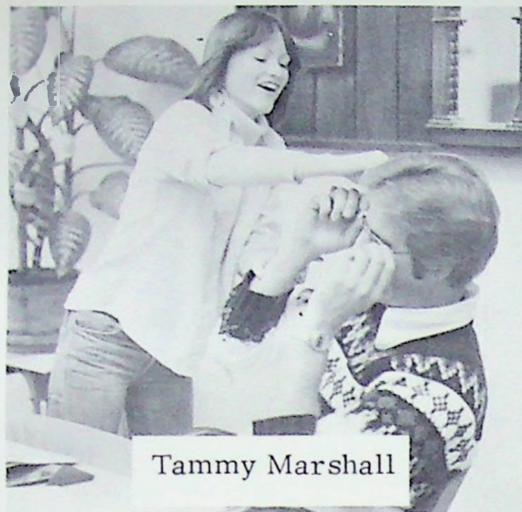

Here at Oasis we like to look at life from a different perspective. We know that most of the students who leave here will become successful and productive. However, while here, many have displayed talents that we feel are worth mentioning. So, the yearbook staff polled the students to find those who were

We had several fundraising projects during the year to raise money for the yearbook and for several trips. Dave Arneson and Phillip Ferrell picked grapes for the Kingsburg Fair Booth. Phillip also headed the Committee to paint curbs. A trip to the boonies was taken to collect beer cans and ads were sold to the merchants in Kingsburg. Enough money was raised to pay for this yearbook and pay for rental ski equipment for some students for x-c skiing and backpacking.
