FOREWORD

YOU have been of prime importance in the planning and working out of this Annual. The staff sincerely hopes that in every sense of the word this is truly a yearbook. In it, from the fleeting to the memorable, we have recorded for you the accomplishments, the incidents, and the memories of this past year. If our aspirations are to be fulfilled, this book will be a cherished and a priceless possession, because it is a reminder of happy, carefree days. It is to preserve these memories for you that we publish this "Viking" Annual; and, if this end is accomplished, the staff is well satisfied with its labor.

"No man can injure another without injuring himself; no man can uplift another without uplifting himself."—Booker T. Washington.

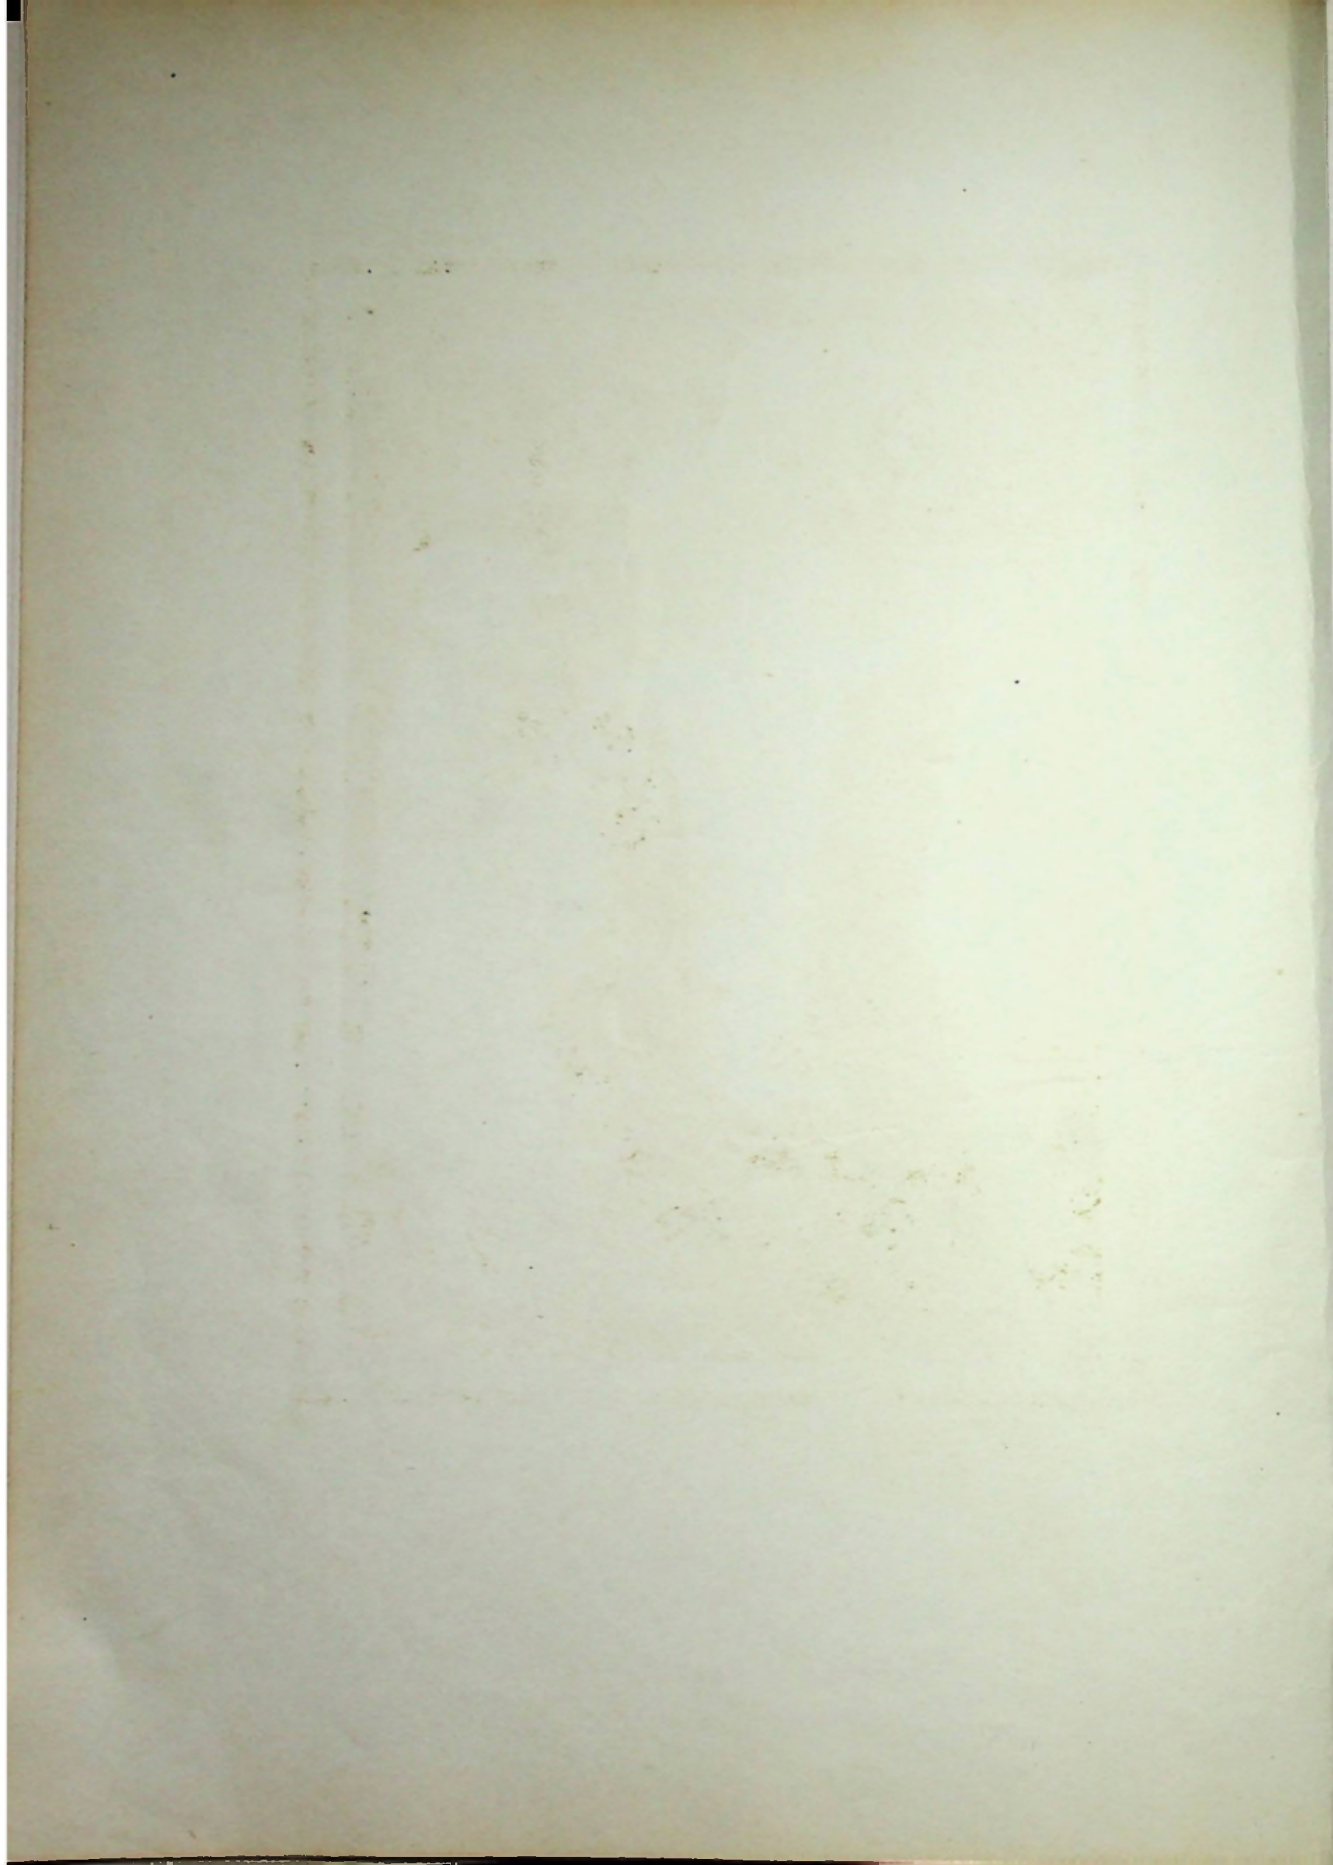

Thus Mr. Washington has written, and thus you have taught us. In recognition of your tireless efforts to instill in us higher ideals, love and honor both for our country and for our school; in sincere appreciation of your vital interest in Kingsburg High School and in us, her students; and in gratitude for giving us an admirable example of the above quotation, we, the staff, fondly dedicate this piece of work, the "Viking" of 1935, to you, Mr. Catlin, the friend of every student.

WHO WE ARE

In which we show you our task-masters, the departing seniors, the promising juniors, the oncoming sophomores, and the cute freshmen . . . our leaders in self-government . . . and the high pointers.

Top Row: Mr. Pierce (Principal), Miss Newbecker, Mr. E. C. Peterson, Mrs. Nordstrom, Mr. Schreiber, Miss Roper.
 Second Row: Miss Kraeger, Mr. Henderson, Miss Smith, Mr. Vaniman, Miss Chaplin, Mr. Bunger. Third Row: Mr. C.
 Peterson, Miss Breed, Mr. Diel, Miss Savory, Mr. Catlin, Miss Knapp. Fourth Row: Mr. Rhoades, Miss Devereaux,
 Miss Peterson, Miss McDaniel, Mr. Johnson (no picture).

K. U. H. S. F A C U L T Y

At the end of an athletic contest it is customary to place on the victor's brow a wreath of laurel. To you, our Faculty, we present a wreath in recognition of the Herculean tasks you have so admirably surmounted in the past year.

At Commencement we look into the future. Perchance we are going on to further education or are starting out to make our way in the world. The future would be barren indeed if we were not equipped to meet it. Throughout the four years we have been here, you have given us lessons that you knew would be the best preparation for what we must face.

Not only in our studies have you spent your time and abilities; the clever programs, the plays, and musical programs have been successful only because of your untiring guidance and management.

S T U D E N T B O D Y

In this year of returning prosperity our "Viking" ship has sailed into calmer waters.

The first issue of the year was the student body ticket sale. More than ninety per cent of the students bought tickets, a jump of at least twenty per cent.

To create more interest in assemblies a contest was staged between the classes. After the two higher classes had given their programs, the sophomores and freshmen became inspired. With this inspiration, a lot of hard work, and the clever ideas of their advisers, they gave us unusual programs.

The student body has had some very fine speakers and performers this year. The most interesting program of the whole school year was that given by Mr. Julian Arnold of Los Angeles, who lectured all morning. The first hour he spoke on "From the Cave Man to the Public Library"; taking us from the first printing, a footprint in the clay, to modern literature. The second hour he gave personal reminiscences of great English writers and scientists, having known Carlyle, Tennyson, Darwin, Queen Victoria, and others. The third hour he thrilled the whole student body with tales of lion hunting in Africa. By profession Mr. Arnold is a geologist, but by avocation he is a man of the world.

"SCHOLARSHIP FOR SERVICE"

The California Scholarship Federation, of which the Kingsburg Chapter, No. 110, is a part, is an organization for the promotion of high ideals of scholarship and service.

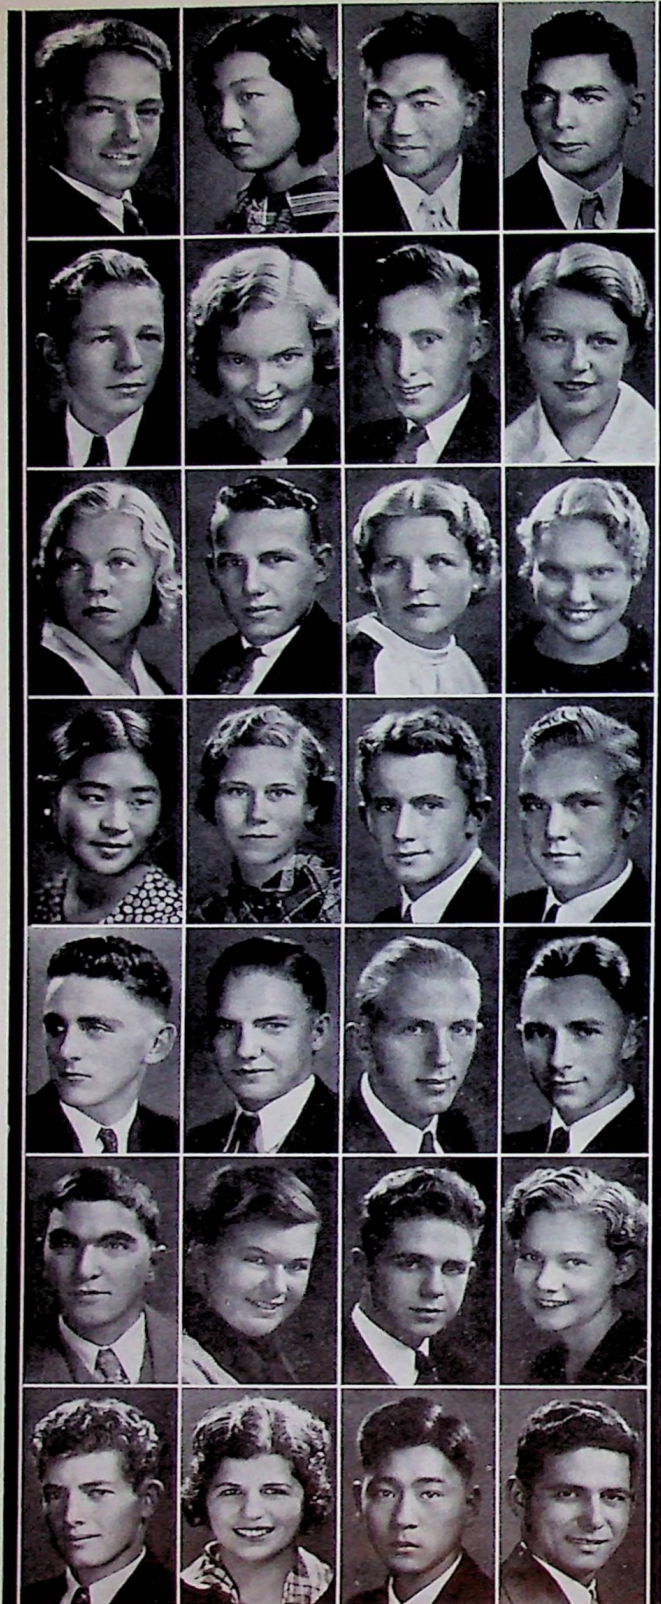

During the past year our membership has increased with representatives from the senior, sophomore, and freshman classes.

At the fall convention of the Twentieth District, held at Fowler, Verna Hanson presided as chairman. Elaine Peterson and Miss Kraeger were also in attendance. The spring convention was held at Fresno with Elaine Lindquist and Mildred Seaward serving as delegates. The central region convention was held at Hayward on April 27, the main event of which was an excursion to the University of California. Those attending this convention were Verna Hanson, Elaine Lindquist, and Miss Kraeger.

On May 11 the fifteen Honor members made a one-day trip to Yosemite with Miss Kraeger and Miss Savory as chaperons. Hiking, sight-seeing, and eating filled the day.

At one of the spring student body meetings Verna Hanson, Pauline Berg, and Elaine Peterson were awarded life membership pins in the C. S. F.

May others strive a bit harder another year that they may gain membership in the C. S. F.

C L A S S H I S T O R Y

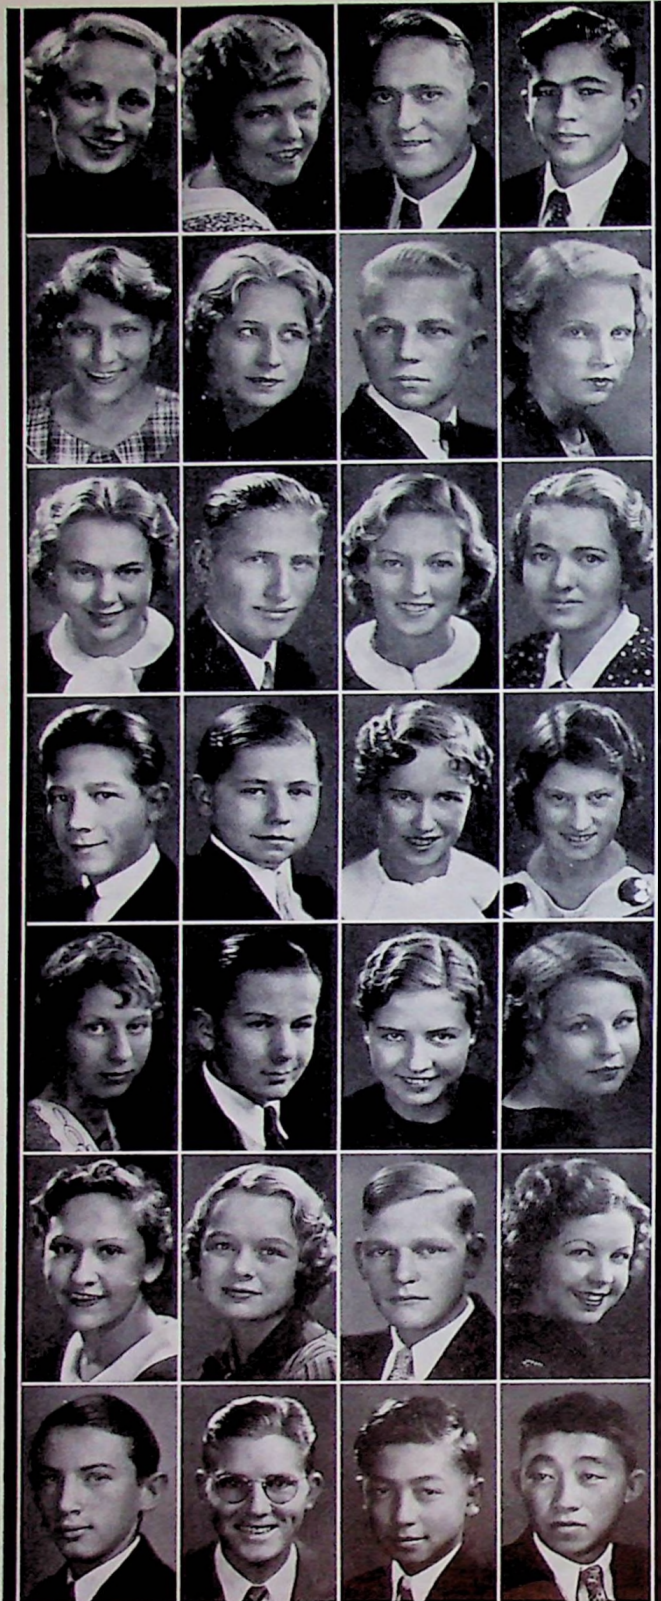

We stepped on the first rung of the high school ladder the fall of 1931. The seniors decided (aided by a law against hazing) to give us a reception in the form of a party and no initiation.

We proved our might by winning the Brawl, and the sophomores' faces were red to compliment our green.

In April we had a party, but what became of the ice cream?

The second rung was somewhat shaky as the freshmen defeated us in the interclass track meet. However, we regained our confidence.

Our junior year was decidedly a step upward. Juniors were on the football, basketball, and baseball teams. "Seventeen" was one of the best plays ever given in Kingsburg. The Swedish banquet given for the seniors was a marked success.

The mighty seniors! Rah! We went to the Bear Pit, traditional site of the steak bake. We gave the freshmen a reception, entertaining them with a movie. All through the second semester the war waged between the pro and anti caps and gowns with the pros emerging victorious.

Dress-up day looked like a circus parade. Some seniors "ditched"; as a result only our better half enjoyed Senior Day.

Terrorizing screams greeted "Tiger House". The Hawaiian banquet was much appreciated. Commencement and the sadness of farewell.

The class of '36 may well be proud of the contribution of her members to school activities this past year. Jim Pearson, John Peterson, Philip Strid, and Lorin Vaughan earned silver footballs for outstanding work on the Varsity team. Seven juniors earned Block "K's" in heavyweight football, while in lightweight football five boys made their letter. Junior girls playing volleyball for K. H. S. were: Ruth Hanson, Lorraine Cedarquist, Harriet Buehler, Alys Olson, and Ruby Vartanian. Pitcher Walter Westberg, Billy Barnes, Carl Johanson, Henry Kaiser, Warren Norman, and Jim Pearson represented the class in baseball; Jim Pearson, Billy Barnes, and John Deguchi in track; and Jim Pearson and John Deguchi on the basketball courts. Ruth Hanson, pitcher, Vena Crass, and Tsugi Hamada were members of the girls' basketball team. Willis Eklund, Harriet Buehler,

June Crouser, and Ruby Vartanian were junior representatives on the tennis teams.

The junior play, "The Patsy", was very ably presented in two performances by separate casts. Ruby Vartanian and Jim Pearson carried the leads in the matinee; and in the evening performance, June Crouser and Jim Pearson (substituting for Morris Jacobsen).

In March the juniors gave a program for the student body. Original skits written by June Crouser and Dorothy Flood were presented; a graceful Japanese dance was given by four Japanese girls; vocal and instrumental numbers completed the program.

LaVerne Rosander was chosen as junior attendant of the May Day queen. A class float was entered in the parade.

The annual class party was held May 10 on the lawn.

As the closing affair of the term, the junior class gave an Hawaiian banquet in honor of the senior class. After the banquet members of the two classes attended a dance sponsored by the P. T. A.

On the morning of September 17, 1935, over a hundred freshmen entered the portals of this institution of learning, shy, green, and trembling.

During the second week of school the Freshman-Sophomore Brawl took place with the freshmen going down in defeat. However, the sophomores' opponents put up a glorious fight, and for a while it was doubtful who would wear the laurels. But the class of '38 was not discouraged by one defeat.

Class meetings have been held on Tuesday of every other week at which time programs have been given.

The freshmen no longer feel as if they were but an insignificant part of the school life. In fact, it has been proved that they are a vital part of it. Several of the freshman boys have made a splendid showing in athletics. The freshman girls also have taken an active part in volleyball and indoor baseball.

The freshmen are not represented in sports alone, but they are also well represented in the Honor Society. Four of these supposedly "green" freshmen have gained membership in this organization. They are: Megumi Hamada, Marjorie Stone, Esther Lundgren, and Barry Berg.

On the first day of March the freshmen were the honored guests of the seniors. The main event of the evening was a comedy featuring Harold Lloyd in "Welcome Danger".

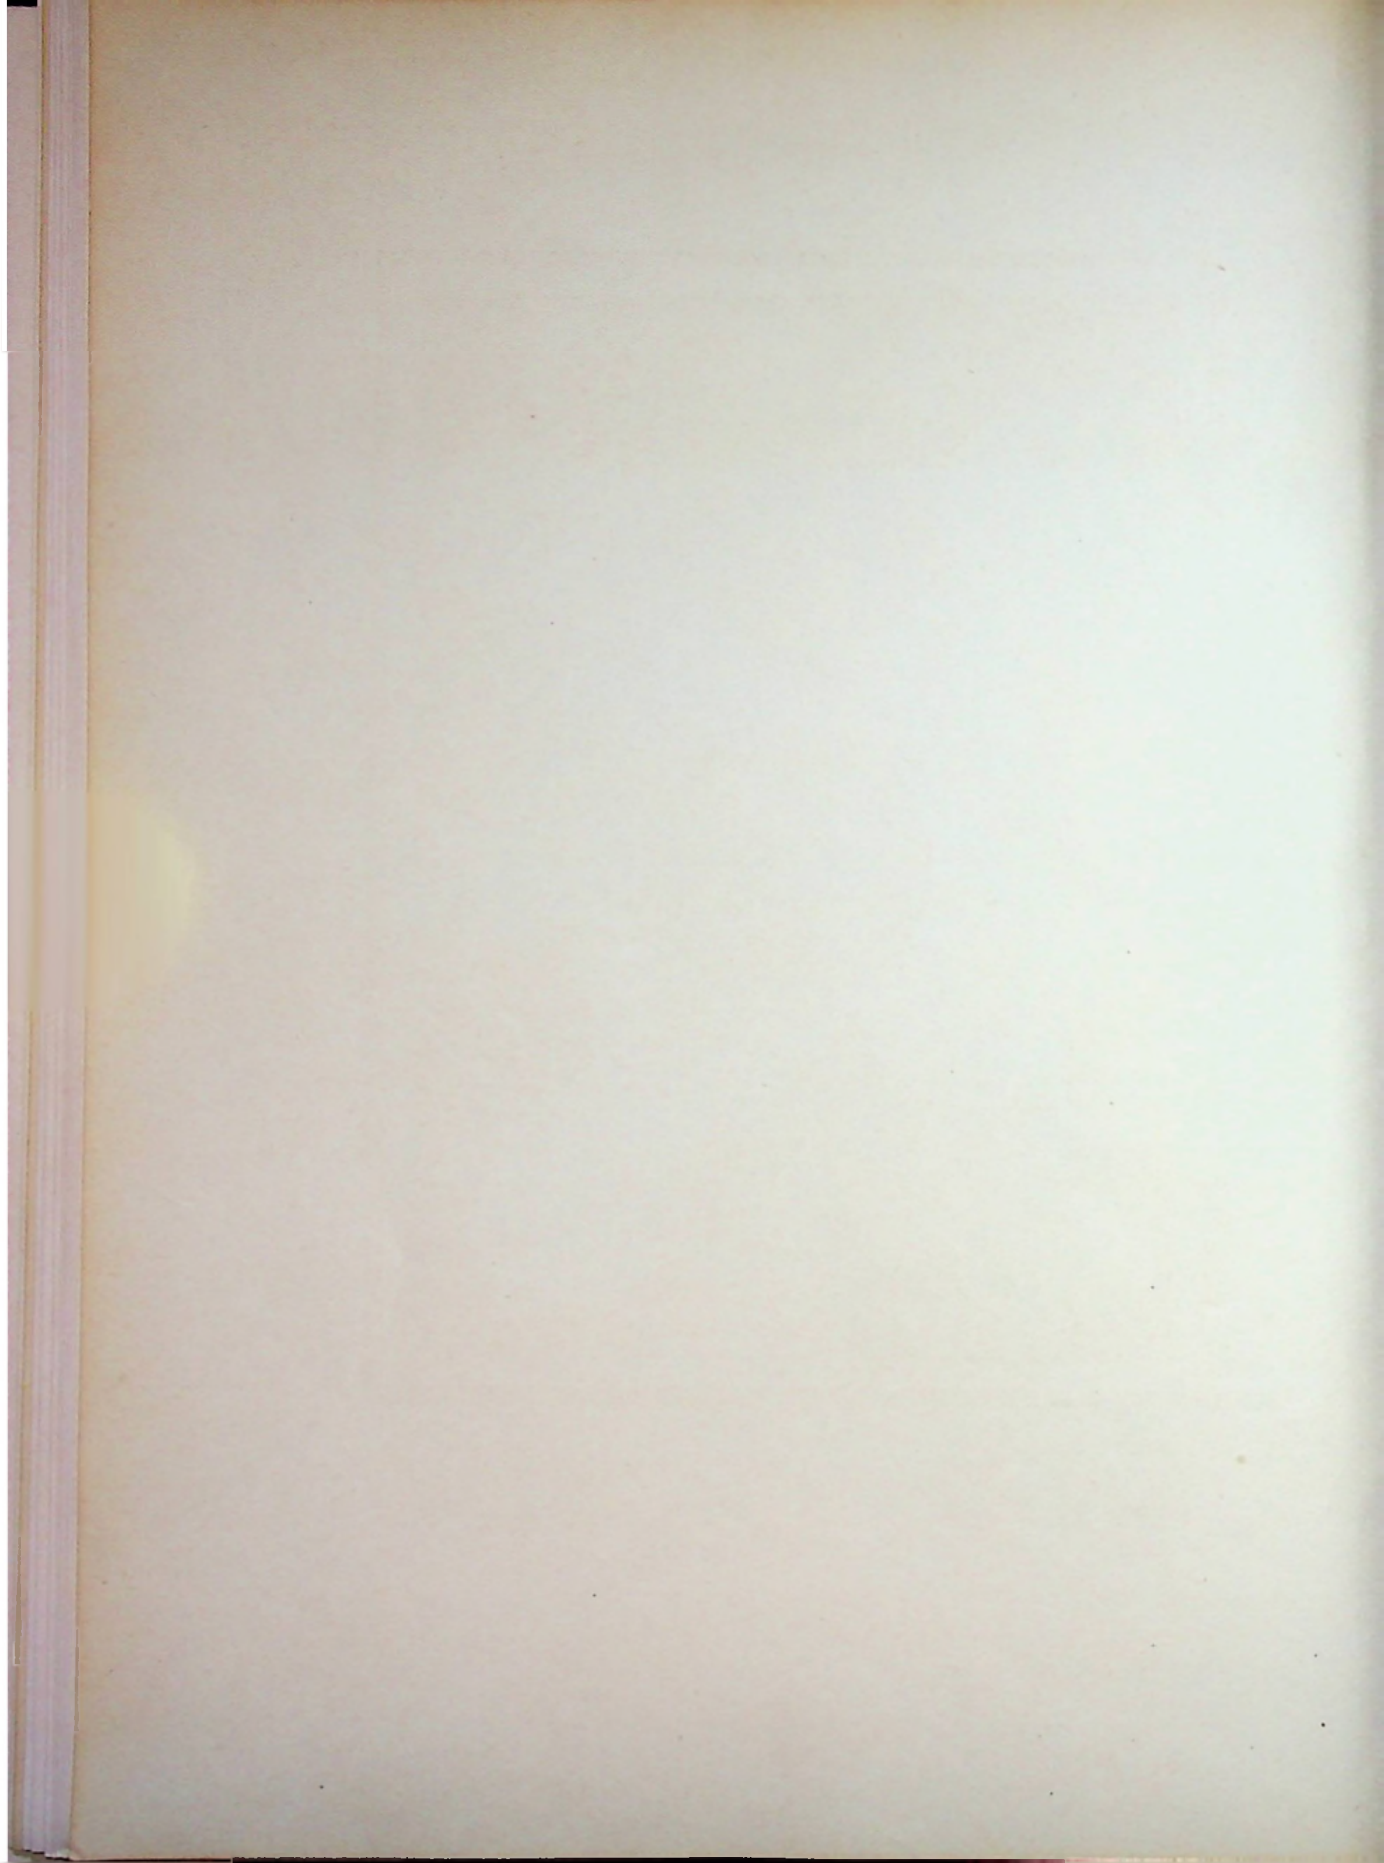

During the last of April the freshmen really showed the student body what they could do. Their program, Freshmen vs. High School, proved to be full of fun and laughter, and was received by a very appreciative audience.

The freshmen have enjoyed their first year in high school and are going to come back next year with the intention of adding greatly to their own laurels and the prestige of Kingsburg High.

WHAT WE DO

AROUND THE EDITOR'S TABLE

In the preparation of the 1935 "Viking", the staff has met with not a few difficulties, some disappointments, but many moments intensified by the keen joy of creation.

It is with a feeling of pride, therefore, that we offer the results of our year's efforts; trusting that it fulfills your idea of what a year book should be and that the numerous innovations, the increase in pictorial content, and the personal touches meet with your approval.

Often in the preparation of this book the staff has had to seek information on various technical points. Those to whom we have gone have willingly given to us the information sought. The co-operation of the faculty and administration afforded the staff is sincerely appreciated.

The persons who have contributed most to the success of this book are the advisers, Mrs. Nordstrom and Mr. Schreiber, who have been very helpful in foreseeing and solving difficulties.

The advice and suggestions given the staff by Mr. T. Ellsworth, representing the Graphic Arts Photo Engraving & Color Plate Co., and by Mr. F. Knapp, representing Lederer, Street & Zeus Co., Printers, have been invaluable.

The staff also wishes to express their gratitude to Mr. Lyle Rennick and Mr. Shanton, photographers, for their willingness to help.

Last but not least to our advertisers for their co-operation in the production of the 1935 "Viking" we express our sincere appreciation.

G. O. S. LEAGUE

Another year of service has been completed by the "Girls of Service" under the leadership of their president and advisers.

At the beginning of the year a dues contest was held among the physical education classes. The penalty for the class collecting the least dues within a limited time was to give a program before the league. Several weeks later this program, full of clever, amusing stunts, was given to an interested audience by the Period I class.

Before the Christmas holidays the annual children's party was given for the small children of the community. Cheer baskets of food and toys were distributed to the needy.

In November a convention was held at Livingston which Verna Hanson, Arlene Spraker, and Mrs. Nordstrom, adviser, attended.

As the school year came to a close, the girls entertained their mothers with a reception, at which time the installation services were held.

May the "Girls of Service" continue to serve.

HI-Y

Under their new leader, Mr. Ferdinand Diel, the Senior Hi-Y has again completed a successful year of fellowship.

The "branding" of the new members marked the beginning of many enjoyable evenings together. Once a month a masculine "rough house" formed a diversion.

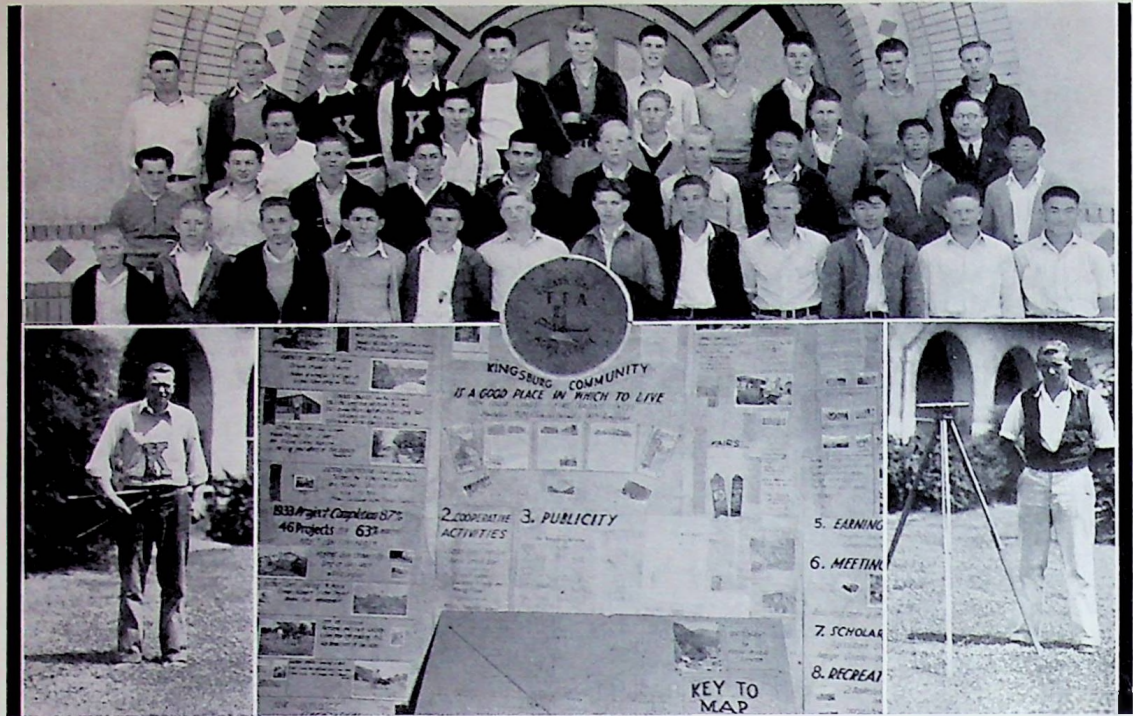

O R G A N I Z A T I O N S

The annual events of the year proved very successful. Late in January the three-day snow outing was held at Lake Sequoia. Declaring that one "woman party" was not enough, the boys broke the precedent and enjoyed two such parties to which they brought their girl friends. The Hi-Y conference was held at Selma, at which time the boys won the basketball tournament championship.

The Senior Hi-Y is proud of the athletic records its members have made. They have been well represented in all major sports. Six members of the Varsity football team were Hi-Y members.

The boys showed exceptional dancing and singing abilities in their rendition of the Floradora Sextette for the "Viking Varieties".

It is hoped that the success of this year will be an inspiration to make the coming year even more successful than the past.

GIRLS' "K" CLUB

The Girls' "K" Club is composed of all the girls that earn Block "K's" in any of the major sports: volleyball, indoor, and tennis. There are nineteen members in the "K" club at the present time. This year we have many new members, especially from the athletically inclined freshman class.

During the volleyball season this year the club entertained its opponents from Riverdale after the game with them. Tasty refreshments of punch and cookies were served.

In order to raise money for the functioning of our club, the club members sold candy and ice cream during a football game.

At this year's May Day Festival the Girls' "K" Club entered an appropriate float. A skit was also presented at the evening performance.

The Girls' "K" Club was hostess for a moonlight hike held for all the girls registered at Kingsburg High School. Everybody was tired after the long hike, but they also pronounced it one of the most enjoyable evenings they had spent at our school.

The members of the "K" club wish to express their sincere thanks and appreciation to their coach and adviser, Miss Savory, for all she has done to make this year a very successful one for the club.

BOYS' "K" CLUB

The Boys' Block "K" Club, composed of boys who have earned "K's" in one or more of the major sports, has shown keen interest in the athletic events of this school year. The boys are under the leadership of Coach Bunger.

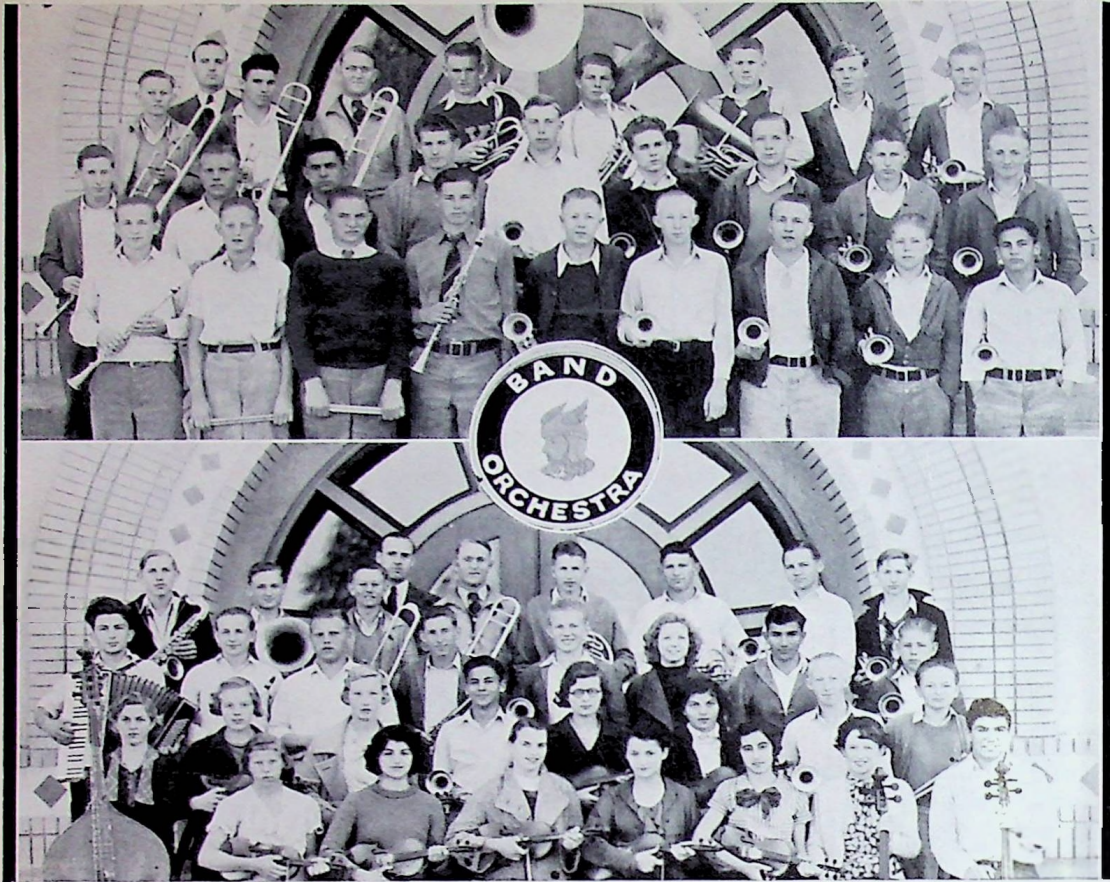

Each year the "K" club takes an active part in athletic contests held on our athletic field. The annual Freshman-Sophomore Brawl was successfully and adequately conducted with the Boys' "K" Club in charge of arrangements.

The club also conducted the grammar school track meet held in conjunction with the Future Farmers of America May Fete.

A German Band number was contributed by the Boys' "K" Club in the Future Farmers of America May Fete program.

A boys' tumbling act was sponsored by the club in the "Viking Varieties".

In May a wiener roast was held at the Kings river. The main feature of this outing was a swimming meet.

BAND

Starting the year with about forty members of varying musical experience, the Viking Band has concluded another successful year through the efforts of its very able director, Mr. Charles G. Peterson. The enlarging of the library of music, together with the more mature musicianship of the ensemble, has enabled the band to play a better grade of music with finer execution than in former years.

Supporting the champion football team at all its games, the band devoted the major part of the first semester to pep material and class work. Meanwhile, the junior members of the organization were engrossed in technique.

The organization was represented in the civic Christmas Tree Program by a brass ensemble playing Christmas carols, and as a part of the "Viking Varieties" a brass quartet rendered a selection. The band participated in the Future Farmers' May Day Fete by marching in the parade and contributing a brass quartet to the evening program.

On Mother's Day, May 12, the Fresno County Massed Band, of which the Viking Band is a part, held its annual concert in Roeding Park. As a climax to a very successful year, the band played for the Commencement exercises.

ORCHESTRA

Through the efforts of Charles G. Peterson, the director, the orchestra has established itself as one of the best organizations of its class in the county. The year started with thirty-one members, most of whom were advanced students. The orchestra was made up of a well-balanced string section, reeds, and brasses. March 25th the orchestra assisted the band in the entertainment of the Fresno State Band and men's glee club at a dinner preceding their annual Kingsburg concert.

The orchestra has participated in various school activities, such as the May Fete program, the operetta, and various dramatic productions. Members of the orchestra have been called upon to appear many times upon various programs.

M U S I C I A N S

On May 12th, the orchestra played in the Fresno County Music Festival in Fresno and for the graduation exercises, May 31st.

For young musicians without much experience, Mr. Peterson organized a beginners' orchestra. It has had a successful year.

The organization has worked unceasingly throughout the year and as a consequence, has made remarkable progress.

GLEE CLUB

The glee club has successfully completed another year under the inspiring leadership of Miss Chaplin.

The club made its first appearance in the "Viking Varieties," when the girls' trio, assisted by a mixed chorus, presented a Chinese skit.

The operetta, "An Old Spanish Custom," was given by the glee club and chorus combined, on March 8.

On May 3 a decorated car was entered in the May Day parade, and in the evening the glee club took part in the evening's program.

After the operetta, practice started for the May Music Festival, held in Roeding Park, Fresno, on May 12.

At the Baccalaureate exercise the girls' trio and a group of nine gave special numbers.

The girls' trio, consisting of Gladys Rosander, Marguerite Rouch, and Clarice Erickson, has been very active, singing for various fraternal and church organizations at numerous social functions.

On the evening of March 8 "An Old Spanish Custom," an operetta based on a California ranch story, was very successfully presented by the glee club and chorus combined under the capable direction of Miss Rose Chaplin.

CHORUS

The chorus has now completed its second successful year, under the able direction of Miss Chaplin.

The first public appearance made by this musical group was in the annual operetta, "An Old Spanish Custom," given by the chorus and glee club combined. It proved to be a great success and was due to the able, energetic direction of Miss Chaplin, assisted by Miss Breed.

The annual May Music Festival was held in Roeding Park, Fresno, May 12, at which time the chorus joined other mixed groups of Fresno County.

On May Day the chorus entered a decorated car in the parade and also took part in the evening program.

The last public appearance made by the group was at the Baccalaureate exercise.

"The Patsy," a charming comedy in three acts, was presented by the junior class under the excellent direction of Miss Virginia Breed. An afternoon performance was given February 21 at matinee prices by the second cast and an evening performance February 22 by the first cast. However, because of an attack of mumps suffered by Morris Jacobsen, the male lead in both performances was creditably carried by Jim Pearson.

"VIKING VARIETIES"

Realizing the need of something to stimulate the interest of the entire student body and to afford to more students an opportunity to participate in school activities a faculty committee this year developed the idea of an all-school vaudeville to be given annually in the fall.

A school-wide contest resulted in the selection of "Viking Varieties," the name submitted by Robert Diehl '35, as the permanent title of this production.

All organizations and departments in the school began immediately to plan and work to make the first presentation of the "Viking Varieties" a success. It was given on the evening of December 15 to a capacity audience and was received with gratifying applause. Approximately half the student body actually participated on the stage, and hardly a student but assisted in some way. A varied program of twenty acts was given, including tumbling acts, pantomimes, skits, dancing, and vocal and instrumental numbers. With the proceeds, the student body was able to purchase an excellent second-hand piano for the music department.

GRIDIRON CHAMPS

On October 12, 1934, Kingsburg High School embarked upon one of the most successful football seasons of recent years. Under the guidance of Coach Bunger the Vikings swept through the entire season undefeated and annexed the Valley title.

Buck Catlin, Viking quarterback, led his team-mates to victory in the first game of the season by downing the Kerman eleven. This was encouraging to the Vikings and the next three opponents were easily conquered.

The battle of the season came when Kingsburg fought a fighting pack of Red Cats for the division title.

Next, Kingsburg met the Laton team for the Fresno County Championship. After a rather one-sided contest the Vikings emerged victorious.

The Vikings were now in line for the Valley semi-final contest with Dos Palos as the opposing team. The invaders, who had come with such high hopes, were sent home after a 33-12 drubbing.

After the Dos Palos game only one barrier, the Corcoran Panthers, lay between the Vikings and the Valley title. They were finally disposed of, however, and the Vikings ended the season as the Valley Champs.

Thus ended a most successful season in which the Vikings piled up a total of 232 points to their opponents 24.

Fourteen boys, who were the main cogs in the grid machine, were awarded silver footballs. They were: Catlin, E. Christensen, C. Ericson, E. Erickson, C. Garabedian, Klockars, R. Mack, R. McKenry, K. Nelson, L. Nelson, Pearson, J. Peterson, P. Strid, and L. Vaughan.

P I G S K I N P E E W E E S

Kingsburg was very fortunate this year in having a lightweight football coach. In previous years Coach Bunger has had to divide his time between the two teams. This proved to be unsatisfactory, so this year another coach was provided. Mr. Ferdinand Diel, local teacher, assumed these responsibilities and did a very commendable job.

The lightweights got off to a good start by trouncing the Central Union team by a score of 33-0. Spurred on by this victory the Vikings eliminated their next three foes and came into the Fresno County finals.

The biggest lightweight battle came when the local Babes encountered the Fresno Tech Wolves for the county title. This was the most evenly-contested game of the season and was packed with thrills for the spectators. Hard blocking and tackling were displayed in this game with the Wolves finally nosing the Vikings out to the tune of 7-6.

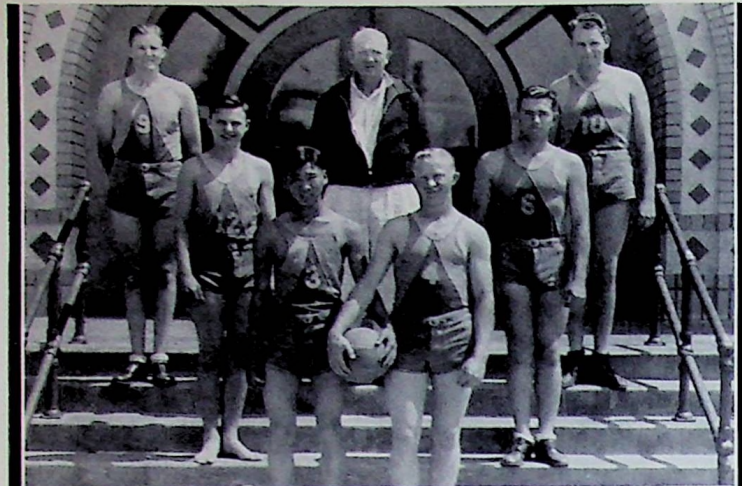

The lightweight backfield was fast and shifty and will be a valuable addition to next year's heavyweight team. The line was composed of stalwart Vikings who caused their opponents no little trouble.

Interest in the lightweight games was keen this season, and the games were well supported by the students and townspeople.

The boys who received their letters for lightweight football this year were: Burgeson, J. Larson, John E. Olson, Bengston, Brown, R. Carlson, Deguchi, T. Garabedian, Giannini, Hampton, Hillblom, C. Lindstrom, D. Nelson, L. Nelson, W. Nelson, Trank, Turner, F. Vaughan, Aslan, and Hovnanian.

HEAVYWEIGHT BASKETBALL

Kingsburg's heavyweight basketball team entered the season by administering a 29 to 14 defeat to the Selma High School Peach Pickers.

It seemed as if this good luck could not last, for in the second game the Vikings suffered defeat at the hands of the Reedley Pirates.

Kingsburg then met the aggressive Lemoore quintet.

In the last game of the season the Vikings trimmed the Coalinga team.

The basketball schedule was hindered a great deal this year by epidemic diseases which afflicted most of the players.

MIDDLEWEIGHT BASKETBALL

Coach Diel took charge of the Middleweights this year, with Coach Bunger devoting all his time to the heavyweights and lightweights.

The Middleweights lacked the basket-shooting ability that is necessary for a basketball team, but they had lots of fight and must be given credit for that never-say-die spirit.

In the final game with Coalinga the Vikings gave their opponents a real game. The game was close throughout, and the Coalinga team was only able to nose the Vikings out by one point.

LIGHTWEIGHT BASKETBALL

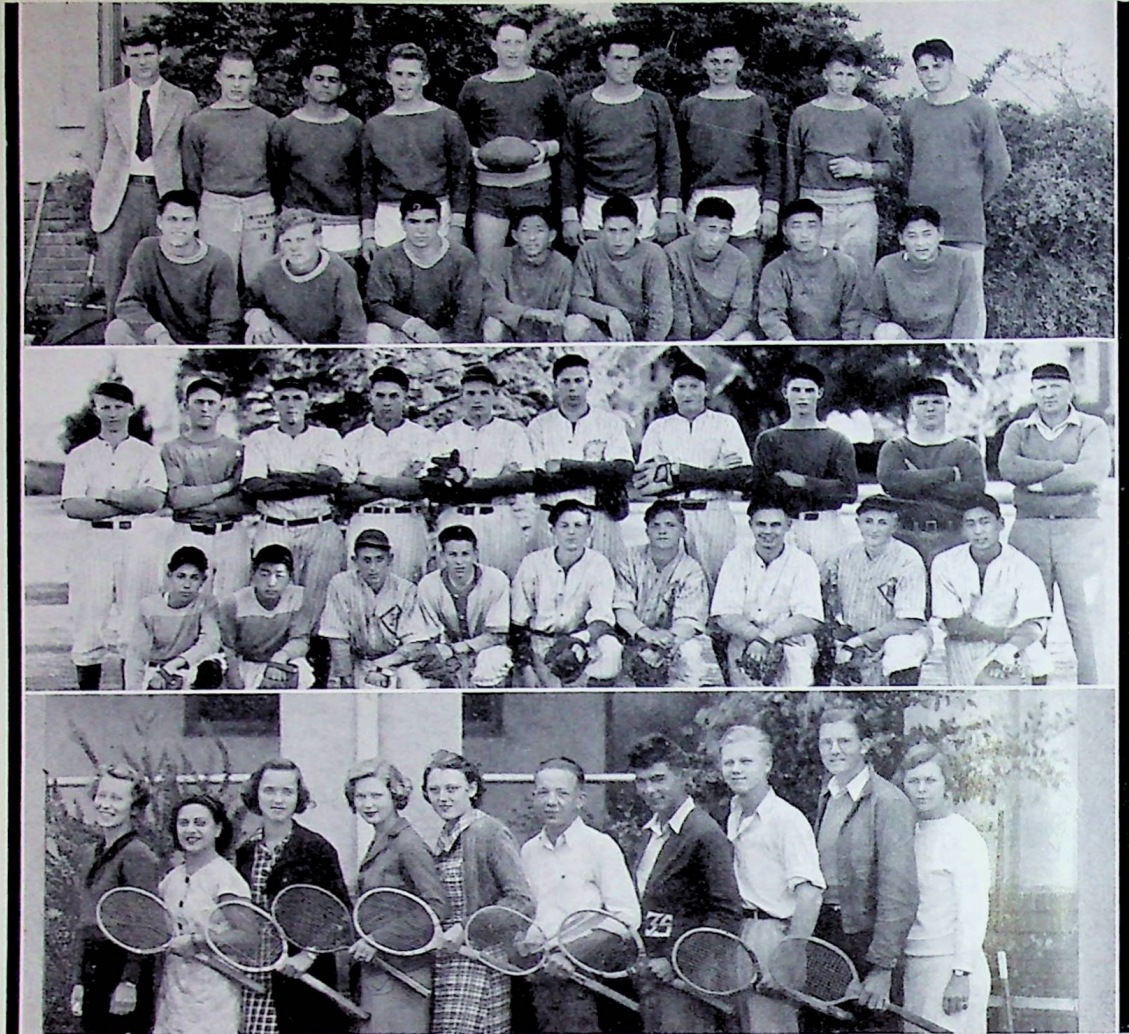

The Lightweights proved to be the strongest of Kingsburg's basketball teams. With only freshmen and sophomores for material, Coach Bunger produced a winning team. These midgets were all fast and shifty, and several dead-shots among them strengthened the team a great deal.

The Lightweights won all but one of their contests. This game was with Reedley whose team had all it could do to hold the local boys and win by a 15 to 14 count.

Lightweights who earned letters are: Archie Fridolfs, Manfred Hillblom, Grand Aslan, Kiyoshi Hirano, Warren Hovnanian, and Noburo Yoshimoto.

TENNIS

Miss Kraeger, Ruby Vartanian, Lucille Leabetter, June Crouser, Harriet Buehler, Dale Turner, Garoun Andranigian, Willis Eklund, Harvey Wilson, Miss Savory.

BASEBALL

At the beginning of the baseball season Coach Bunger was faced with the very difficult problem of building practically an entirely new ball team. There were only a few regulars from last year and a large number of new candidates for the various positions.

The first game was quite gratifying to Coach Bunger and his boys as they beat out the Clovis nine 2 to 1.

In the Sanger game Reuben Dahlgren hurled good ball and led his team-mates to an 8 to 7 victory.

Reuben Dahlgren and Walt Westerberg performed the mound duties for the Vikings; Clyde Howell worked behind the plate.

TRACK

The track prospects looked favorable this spring. More interest was shown than in previous years, and a fairly good-sized group of athletes turned out with Mr. Diel taking full charge of all track activities.

The Kingsburg track team participated in several practice meets in preparation for the Fresno County meet at Coalinga. These meets were at Bakersfield, Easton, and Kingsburg. In the latter meet the Vikings won the Class "A" events.

This Annual must be in the hands of the printer before the county meet is held, but there are several boys who have a good chance to place. They are Catlin, in the "A" Class shot and discus; Garabedian, in the mile run; Deranian, in the Class "A" sprints; Barnes, in the Class "A" football throw; Trank, in the "B" Class shot-put; Nelson, in the Class "B" discus, and Giannini and Hovnanian in the Class "B" sprints.

This year there was a marked increase in the amount of interest shown in tennis. A large number turned out, and competition for the various teams was unusually keen. As in previous years, the teams were very ably coached by Miss Elsa Kraeger.

Teams representing Kingsburg played the Caruthers teams and captured the honors in both boys' singles and boys' doubles.

In the county semi-finals played at Lemoore, the boys' doubles team, defeated the Lemoore boys' doubles. Garoun Andranigian, the Viking's singles player, won from the Laton singles player. These boys were to play in the County finals held at Roeding Park on April 27.

VOLLEYBALL

The Viking girls started the volleyball season with an unusually large turnout and with the usual spirit and enthusiasm shown in previous years. Under the able and valuable leadership of our coach, Miss Savory, a very good team was developed from the available material.

The girls had a very successful season, participating in three games, winning two and losing one.

Eleven girls received "K's": Sylvia Querin (captain), Berenice Olson, Lula Dukes, Ruth Hedberg, Ruby Vartanian, Ruth Hanson, Alys Olson, Lorraine Cedarquist, Donna Henderson, Anna Mae Olson, Verna Hanson.

GIRLS' INDOOR BASEBALL

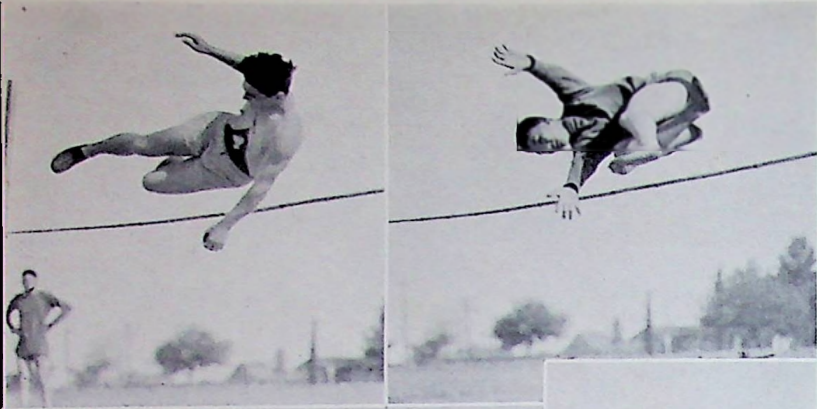

Spring and baseball are synonymous with girls as well as boys, it would seem, for an unusually large number of girls turned out for indoor this year. After a short season of practice, Coach Savory chose a tentative first string, encouraging the others with the opportunity of working up to a first string position.

"The girls have lost three out of four games already played, and at this writing, two remain to be played, but nevertheless the girls count it a most successful season since their traditional rival, Selma, has been humbled for the first time in five years. The following girls, having played in all four games so far, have won "K's" for this year's indoor activity: Sylvia Querin, captain; Ruth Hanson, Ruth Hedberg, Lula Dukes, Vena Crass, Tsugi Hamada, Marjorie Stone, Anna Mae Olson, Elaine Flood.

The girls are exceedingly grateful to Miss Savory for her guidance and unflinching patience.

With the singing of "The Green and the Gold" our high school year ends, leaving us only pleasant memories of the days that have passed.

WHY WE LAUGH

This easily explains why the school-room discipline is sometimes turned "topsy-turvy" . . . why the mouths of our seniors, be-spectacled faculty sometimes turn up. . . .

Teacher: "How dare you swear before me!"

Dorothy F.: "Excuse me. How was I to know you wanted to swear first?"

LeRoy G.: "Did Eli Whitney invent Whitney Beer?"

Mr. Johnson: "No! He invented Cotton Gin."

Teacher: "Billy, are you thinking very hard?"

Billy W.: "Yes, teacher."

Teacher: "I thought I smelled wood burning."

Customer: "I-er-ah-um—"

Jeweler: "Yes, sir. Mr. Larson, please show this man that tray of engagement rings."

Cop: "Use your noodle, lady, use your noodle."

Alice Mae A.: "My gosh! Where is it? I've pushed and pulled everything else in this car."

"My word, Mary, but you're pretty dirty, aren't you?"

"Yes sir, but I'm prettier clean."

The man who marries a woman for her looks generally gets plenty.

A fishy old fisher named Fischer
Fished a fish from the edge of a fissure;
A fish with a grin
Pulled the fisherman in;
Now they're fishing the fissure for Fischer.

Willis E. (to boy leading a skinny Mongrel pup): "What kind of a dog is that, Glenn?"

Glenn D.: "This is a police dog."

Willis: "That doesn't look like a police dog."

Glenn: "Nope, it's in the secret service."

The girl who boasts that she has never been kissed can eat all the onions she wants to.

Dale T.: "Why are you wearin' so many coats?"

Floyd H.: "Well, you see, I'm going to paint our barn, and it says on the can 'To obtain best results put on at least three coats.' "

Miss Roper: "Robert Burns wrote 'To a Field Mouse'."

Charlie G. (from rear of room): "Did he get an answer?"

Mr. Diel: "Lovely ladies laugh softly."

Lois P.: "Well, I'm not a lovely lady."

Mr. Diel: "That's why we let you laugh loudly."

Alice S.: "Let me chew your gum."

Helen S.: "Which one, the upper or lower?"

Yetsuko N.: "Ugh! there's a worm in this apple."
Miss Savory: "Here, take a drink and wash it down."
Yetsuko N.: "Wash it down, nothing. Let the beggar walk."

Coach Bunger: "Here's a candy bar. You two boys flip for it."
George R.: "Give it to him, I'm no acrobat."

Robert D. (pointing): "And this, ladies and gentlemen, is a skyscraper."
Pauline P.: "Oh my! isn't it wonderful. And when can we see it at work?"

Mrs. Nordstrom: "Dwight, use tariff in a sentence."
Dwight N.: "My pants are so thin they'll tariff I bend."

Sophomore: "My, that's a sad looking library."
Freshie: "Because it has panes in the windows?"
Sophomore: "No, because the books are in tiers."

Toshio E.: "Why does that dog sit and look at me all the time when I eat out of this plate?"

Verna H.: "You have the plate he usually eats from, Tosh."

Mr. Diel: "Waiter, it's almost half an hour since I ordered that turtle soup!"
Waiter: "Sorry, sir, but you know how slow turtles are."

Donna H.: "You say anything to me, big boy, an' I'll make you eat your words!"
Eldon E.: "Chicken dumplings, hot biscuits, and watermelon."

Marion W.: "That was a funny looking horse I saw you driving today."
Clifford E.: "The fastest in the country."
Marion: "What's his name?"
Clifford: "Brains."
Marion: "I never heard of him."
Clifford: "He always comes in a head."

Charlie G.: "When I was in the army I did picket duty."
Sieto Y.: "What is picket duty?"
Charlie G.: "Why, de soldiers caught de chickens and got me to picket; that's what I call picket duty."

Buck C.: "Well, there's no love like the old love."
John Ed. O.: "That depends. I prefer one about twenty-five."

June C.: "What figure of speech is 'I love my teacher'?"
Earleen B.: "Sarcasm."

Paul W. (discussing football prospects): "It looks like Clifford Ericson will be our best man."

Arlene S.: "Why, Paul, this is so sudden."
Marguerite R.: "How long can a person live without brains?"
Kenneth N.: "I don't know. How o'd are you?"

Parson: "Cheer up, sister, your husband is now in heaven."

Widow (sobbing): "Yes, and so is his first wife, whom he fairly idolized."

Conrad K.: "Do you think your father would object to my marrying you?"

Lucille L.: "I couldn't say, Conrad. If he's anything like me he would."

Homer B.: "I've got a beastly cold in my head."

Evangeline B.: "Never mind, Homer. Don't grumble. Even if it is only a cold, it's something."

"Sit down in front."

"Can't do it, buddy. I ain't built that way."

The surest way of keeping anything out of the newspaper is not to do it.

You can always tell the Swedes

You can always tell the Dutch

You can always tell the English

But you can't tell them much.

Eleanor B.: "I hear you are a great artist."

Lewis Nordstrom: "I hope to be. I've only started."

Eleanor: "What are you doing?"

Lewis: "Well, I'm living in a study and growing whiskers."

Lewis Nelson: "Did you get a letter from LaVerne?"

Jarl K.: "LaVerne Bruce, or LaVerne who?"

Lewis: "No, I mean LaVerne College."

Miss Breed: "I'd like to devote my last picture to a charitable purpose."

Sylvia B.: "Why not give it to an institution for the blind?"

"Lady, don't you know this is a safety zone?"

(In difficulty) "Of course, that's why I drove in here."

Evelyn O.: "You remind me of a bottle of milk."

Ruth H.: "How's that?"

Evelyn: "Because you're thick on top."

Mr. Henderson: "Do you believe that paper can keep a person warm?"

Kenneth J.: "I certainly do, for when I bring my report card home it's plenty warm around the house for a couple of days."

Fay M.: "When were you born?"

Lorraine C.: "On my birthday, of course."

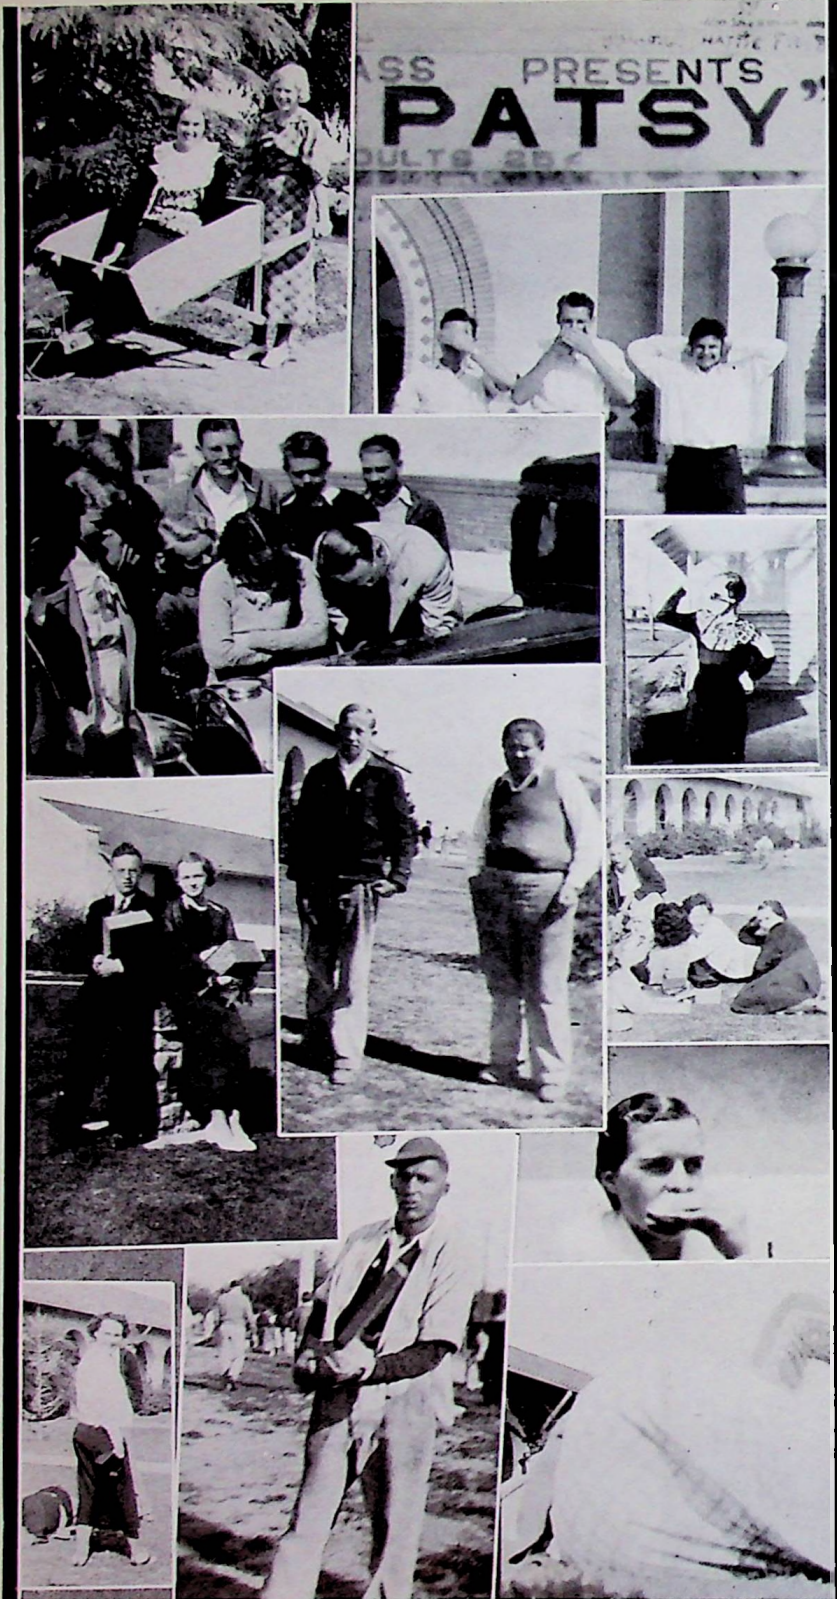

Fay M.: "I want to know on what date."

Lorraine: "Oh! I was too young to have dates then."

Roland C.: "I have a ring that belonged to a millionaire."

LaVerne B. (very excitedly): "You have! Who's was it?"

Roland C.: "Woolworth's."

Miss Savory, to girls in P. E. classes—"Girls, when I say halt, raise the foot which is on the ground up to the foot which is in the air, and remain motionless."

Mr. Diel—"Can you tell me what is meant by "divers diseases"?"

Chester Westerling—"Yes, sir."

Mr. Diel—"Explain your point."

Chester—"They must be fish bites."

Fritz Alvin—"Boy, I sure envy a hen. All she's got to do is lay an egg and her day's work is done."

Mr. Pierce, to Roland Gerard—"Why don't you try following in the footsteps of some of the upper classmen?"

Roland—"I did; I followed Everett Samuelson one night and he led me to Craveira's front porch."

Garoun A.—"I spent nine hours over my math. last night."

Mr. Peterson—"Did you really?"

Garoun—"Yes, it was under my bed."

Archie F.—"Only fools are certain; wise men hesitate."

Dorothy C.—"Are you sure?"

Archie—"Absolutely certain!"

Roscoe M.—"Why does a man's hair turn gray so much quicker than his mustache?"

Chet. W.—"Give it up."

Roscoe—"Because it is about 16 to 18 years older."

Freshie—"Do they ring three bells for fire drill?"

Senior—"No, they ring the same bell three times."

Brooks J.—"I've been a banker for one year today."

Jim P.—"What bank?"

Brooks—"That ditch bank."

Miss Smith—"What are the most common words in High School?"

Dorothy W.—"I don't know."

Miss Smith—"You've guessed it exactly."

"Say, which of dem chickens does you think am not laying?"

"Why, ah suppose it am de roosters."

HOME

Home reflects character. More, it molds character. Home is the image of thought exposed, inviting the gaze of the world. As your home is, so are you. Then make your home as you want to be—in good taste, dignified, ennobling, to be admired. But see to it that it is also beautiful, comfortable and durable.

You build with assurance if you let us plan your home. We furnish all materials necessary out of our ample stock. We are building experts. Make use of our service. It is free.
